ORTIE M'MANIGAL CONTINUES STORY

Confessed Dynamiter Tells of Explosions Where "Soup" Was Used

IMPLICATES MORE OFFICIALS

Mentions Others Among the Defendants Who, He Says, Knew He Was Employed by Iron Workers Union

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11.—From that part of his career when he had discarded dynamite and was resorting to the use of nitro-glycerine which he carried about on passenger trains by the dozens of quarts, Ortie E. McManigal related at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial today how he had caused explosions at Cleveland, Jersey City, Pittsburgh, Omaha and Superior, Wis. He named Peter J. Smith and George "Nipper" Anderson, of Cleveland; Charles Wachtmeister, Detroit; Hiram Cline, Indianapolis; William E. Reddin, Milwaukee; Fred Mooney, Duluth, and Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco, all labor union officials, besides those he previously had mentioned as being among the 45 defendants who knew he was employed by the union iron workers to blow up work under construction by "open-shop" contractors.

Carrying 12 quarts of nitro-glycerine, in the company of Herbert S. Hockin, from a hiding place in an old cooper shop at Rochester, Penn., McManigal testified he delivered the explosive to Smith and Anderson in Cleveland, to be used by them in blowing up a building at Akron, Ohio, July 4th, 1910. The witness said he was to have done the "job," but Smith insisted it had been promised to some one else.

"They did not know how to use the alarm clock arrangement we had for setting off bombs," said McManigal, "so I was sent to Chicago to forward 100 feet of fuse by special delivery. It arrived in time and the Akron job was blown up July 4th.

"On my going again to Indianapolis, J. J. McNamara said he had talked to President Frank M. Ryan, of the Iron Workers' Union, about Hockin holding out part of my pay for each job. McNamara said $200 a job had been set aside by the union and hereafter I would work directly under him. He said he had just received a letter from Frank C. Webb, New York, asking to send me to blow up a Phoenix Bridge Company job at Jersey City. I was to return by way of Pittsburgh and look over the McKees Rocks job and also by way of Scranton, Pa., and get in touch with Michial J. Hannon, local business agent. McNamara told me not to talk much to Hannon as he was not sure of Hannon yet.

"Webb met me in Jersey City and took me out to show me what to blow up. While I surveyed the job, he stood back, saying the workmen knew him around there. That night after waiting two hours to learn that the watchman made a round only once an hour, I placed two bombs in some girders after midnight, July 9th. In the morning I saw Webb with a newspaper giving an account of the explosion. On the way back I stopped in Scranton, but did not see Hannon. At Pittsburg I bought a dozen alarm clocks and on July 14th blew up the McKees Rock job.

When I got back to Indianapolis McNamara was talking to his brother, James B., who said he had received a telegram from Clancy, at San Francisco, and that he (James B.) was going to the coast.

"J. J. said to his brother: 'Look up Clancy as soon as you arrive and he'll put you in touch with the bunch and the old man.

"On the way to Chicago where I left him, J. B. said that he expected to be three months on the coast; that they wanted some one to go out and clean up the coast, particularly Los Angeles; that they had had a couple of fellows working out there, but did not get any results. Later I received a telegram from J. B. dated at Seattle.

"I went to Omaha and on July 21st blew up a job there with eight quarts of nitro-glycerine. I knew the explosions occurred, for I heard it while waiting for a Chicago train at the station half a mile away.

"J. J. wanted to know when I returned to Indianapolis why I had not caused two explosions on the job. I told him a watchman with a dog was following me around and I did not take any chances. I was afraid the dog would scent me out of the dark.

"J. J. gave me 14 quarts more and told me to go to Milwaukee and get in touch with William E. Reddin and then to do a job at Superior, Wis. I went to Miwaukee and buried six quarts on West Wells street. Then I met Reddin, telling him the Milwaukee job did not have enough material on it to blow up yet, but that he should let J. J. know when the material arrived. I blew up the Superior job August 1st. I took a Duluth newspaper account of the explosion back to J. J., but he said he had beaten me to it, for Fred Mooney at Duluth had written him a letter thanking him for sending a real dynamiter up there."

McManigal was telling of his start for Rochester, Pa., to procure 20 quarts of nitro-glycerine for use in an explosion at Kansas City, Mo., August 23rd, when court adjourned.

Flagman's Negligence Caused Appalling Disaster on Yazoo Railroad

FREIGHT HIT AN EXCURSION

Smash-up Occurred Near Montz, La.—Distressing Scenes of Death And Suffering Witnessed—Negroes Panic-Stricken

New Orleans, La., Nov. 11.—Fourteen lives were snuffed out and 90 passengers injured when a through freight train crashed into the rear-end of a northbound excursion train on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad near Montz, La., at 12:20 this morning.

The appalling disaster is charged by the railroad officials to the negligence of a flagman named Cunningham, who disappeared when the two trains crashed together.

Of the dead, four are white women, one a white infant, four negro women and five negro men.

Forty-one of the injured are white and 49 negroes. It is expected that all of these except possibly three, will recover.

Although the scene of the wreck is but 27 miles north of New Orleans and relief trains were sent from this city and from Baton Rouge, the railroad officials withheld from the press information of the wreck until a late hour this morning.

An amazing feature of the wreck was that the loss of life was confined almost entirely to the last and fourth from the last coaches of the excursion train.

The second from the last coach escaped injury almost completely. The excursion train was made up of 10 coaches, with negroes occupying all but the two rear coaches.

The rear coach was demolished and the third and fourth cars were telescoped. All three, together with the freight engine, were burned.

Pathetic stories of the ghastly horror were brought to New Orleans today by survivors, many of whom barely escaped death. The confusion and excitement incident to the distressing scenes of death and suffering was increased by the cries and exclamations of the hundreds of negroes who ran about in a panic-stricken condition. A few of the negroes were self-possessed and lent their aid to heroic efforts of white passengers to save from the flames those pinioned beneath the wreckage, but most of them ran wildly about shrieking, shouting and praying.

Mrs. Thomas McGinness, wife of a New Orleans plumber, and her husband and two small babies, are in a local hospital. The other white victims were Mrs. Charles Grece, Mrs. Montendo and Mrs. Jennie Comeaux, all of Zachary, La. At an early hour tonight no one had appeared to claim the body of the white infant found in the wreck. It is supposed that the child's mother perished.

Of the injured 46 were brought to New Orleans for medical treatment and 44 were taken to Baton Rouge or to their homes.

The Louisiana Railroad Commission today telegraphed to the Inter-State Commerce Commission to join in an investigation of the wreck.

An official statement issued by the railroad company places the blame for the disaster on a brakeman named Cunningham, who is charged with failure to obey orders and signal the freight train.

The excursion train which left New Orleans northbound at 11 P. M., last night, was drawn by two engines. On approaching Montz, one engine broke down and the engineer signalled to the brakeman, it is said, to go back and signal the freight train, which was running 25 minutes behind the excursion.

This order, it is declared, the brakeman failed to comply with and the freight tore into the rear of the crowded passenger train at a speed of about 30 miles an hour. Relief trains were sent from New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

THREE NEGROES DROWNED

Accidental Discharge of Gun Blew a Hole In Their Boat

Danville, Va., Nov. 11.—Three negro youths were drowned in Dan river just above the city this afternoon in a very singular accident, two other occupants of the same boat being able to keep afloat until rescued by boatmen who heard their cries. The negroes were in a boat in mid-stream crossing Dan river with a view of shooting birds, and but one had a gun. In some way the gun was accidentally discharged and the charge of shot bored a hole in the bottom of the boat and it immediately began filling. John Henry Corbin, Reuben Corbin and H. Hairston, being unable to swim, went down with the foundering boat and drowned before they could be reached. The other two boys kept afloat until boatmen from the shore hauled them aboard. Many excited negroes living along shore were powerless to extend succor.

IS HERE TO STAY, SAYS T. R.

Declares Fight Has Just Begun and Work of Progressive Party Is Unparalleled In History of Free Government

New York, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Theodore Roosevelt made a formal statement tonight bearing upon the election and the future of the Progressive party. In line with previous expressions of his own, and of his colleagues, he reiterates that "the Progressive party has come to stay" and "so far from being over, the battle has just begun."

The statement follows:

"I congratulate the Progressives of the country—that is, I congratulate those good men and women who, with sincerity of purpose for the common good, have had the vision to look into the coming years and see what the future demands from us."

"What the Progressive has done since the theft of the Republican organization by the Republican bosses at Chicago last June is literally unparalleled in the history of the free government, worked under representative institutions.

"Three months have gone by since the new Progressive party was founded. Without much money, without any organization, against the wealth of the country, against the entire organized political ability of the country, against the bitter hostility of 90 per cent of the press of the country, against the furious opposition of every upholder of special privilege, whether in politics or in business, and with the channels of information to the public largely choked—the Progressive party has polled between four and four and one-half million votes; has hopelessly beaten one of the old parties, both in the electoral college and, in the popular vote; has taken second place in the Nation and either first or second place in some 37 of the 48 States.

"No task in any way approaching this has ever before been performed by any party in our country. Such a feat, performed by volunteers hastily brought together, and without any previous co-operation with each other against the trained veterans of the political arena—these trained veterans including the entire mercenary forces of politics—should be a source of pride, not only to those who performed the task, but to all believers in good citizenship and in the capacity of Americans for self-government.

"During the campaign, I said repeatedly that this was in no shape or way a one-man movement, but a movement for great principles—a movement which has sprung, as all healthy movements in our democracy, must spring from the heart and conscience of the people themselves. This truth must be kept steadily before the minds of all of us. The Progressive party has come to stay. If either of the old parties will endeavor to put into legislation anyone of our planks, it can count upon our hearty support in so doing, but we will not rest contented until the entire platform is enacted into law and becomes part of our political system, National and State.

"I am proud, indeed that the great good fortune has been mine to fight shoulder to shoulder with the men and women who, in the ranks, and in various positions of leadership have waged this great battle for social and industrial justice. So far from being over, the battle has just begun.

"We will not rest content until every feature of the Progressive platform has been put in effect; and, when this has been done, unquestionably there will have opened to us new avenues along which it will still be a duty to work for the moral and economic betterment of our people.

ANOTHER SWINDLER ARRESTED

Detectives Haul in James McDonald, Helper in Wire-tapping Game. Wilmingtonians Offered Bonus to Drop Case.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 11.—Yesterday afternoon two of Deputy Commissioner Dougherty's detectives, Dally and Wilbur, arrested another sleek gentleman of fortune, who, it is alleged, was also one of the stars in doing up the "Wilmington bunch" in the wire-tapping game, besides old Simple Simon K. Jones, the Pittsburg coal merchant, out of $28,000 and William J. Mason, a Norfolk, Va., real estate man, who, it develops, was another victim to the tune of $20,000. He is James McDonald, a commission merchant also, who lives at the Hoffman House, Broadway and 25th street, and in a stunning Sunday afternoon walking suit was enjoying charming weather on the upper deck of the Fifth avenue and Riverside Drive recreation bus.

Last night he was held in $2,500 bail by Justice Murphy for the trial and round-up of the other six star wire-tappers in the West Side court Tuesday. He is 50 years old and an old timer in the swindling business. Dougherty says he has a long record as a bank swindler and burglar.

Dougherty says also that his pursuit of this Wilmington wire tapping case has cleaned up the town, seven

OUTLINES

Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, resigned yesterday.

The 19th annual convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy meets at Washington today.

The Aldrich Currency bill will likely be a bone of contention during the next session of Congress.

Division of opinion exists among Democratic Senators and Representatives as to the wisdom of calling an extra session of Congress to revise the tariff.

Fourteen passengers were killed and 90 injured early yesterday morning when a freight crashed into an excursion train on the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley Railroad near Montz, La.

Ortie E. McManigal, the confessed dynamiter, continued his story of explosions at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial yesterday, and touched on that part of his career when he substituted nitro-glycerine for dynamite.

President-elect Wilson is pursuing a listening policy in regard to calling an extra session of Congress to revise the tariff and will hear the matter thoroughly discussed before he makes a decision.

Col. Roosevelt issued a formal statement yesterday in regard to the election and the future of the Progressive party. He declared his party had come to stay and had just begun to fight.

The jury which will pass on the guilt or innocence of the four "gunmen" charged with the actual killing of the gambler, Rosenthal, was completed last night and evidence will be begun today.

New York markets: Money on call firm, 4 to 4 1-4 per cent; ruling rate 4 1-4; closing bid 5 1-2; offered at 6. Spot cotton closed quiet. Flour steady. Wheat steady; No. 2 red 1.06 to 1.07. Corn steady, 55 3-4. Turpentine quiet. Rosin steady.

"GUNMEN" JURY IS COMPLETE

Last of 12 Jurors Who Will Decide Fate of Alleged Actual Slayers of Rosenthal, the Gambler, Chosen Last Night.

New York, Nov. 11.—The last of 12 jurors needed to decide the fate of the four "gunmen" indicted as the actual slayers of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, was chosen when Justice Goff adjourned the second day of the trial at 7 o'clock this evening. The first of the State's witnesses will be heard tomorrow.

More than 100 talesmen were examined before the last juror took his seat in the box. The four prisoners, "Dago Frank," "Whitey Lewis," "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood" all took a hand in directing their counsel, Attorney Wahle, to challenge talesmen, but "Dago Frank", who sat nearest the lawyer appeared to be the leading adviser among the four.

The jury is as follows: William H. Montgomery, a buyer, foreman; Lee Kraker, real estate dealer; Edwin Fisher, carpet designer; Samuel M. Comstock, real estate dealer; Charles P. Huntington, architect; John Gudebrod, manufacturer; Henry C. Reynolds, manufacturer; Henry I. Dittman, broker; John G. Guffy, salesman; Sidney J. Hamilton, advertising agent; Alfred J. Hermsheim, manufacturer, and Frank H. Gould, manager.

All are middle-aged men of different nationaliay and all married. The lateness of tonight's session was in part due to the fact that after the choice of a 12th juror had been made, Frederick Shaleck, who had been chosen as juror No. 4, was taken ill and the substitution of Comstock for him became necessary. The jurors, after being warned to discuss the case with no one, were permitted to go to their homes.

It is likely that Jack Rose, who testified against Charles Becker, convicted for instigating the murder, will be among the first witnesses called tomorrow.

Young White Men Surrender at Newbern—Wanted Here

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 11.—Randolph Williams and Andrew Crumby, yolng white men who claim Wilmington as their home, voluntarily walked into the city hall this morning and informed Chief of Police Lupton that they were escaped convicts from the New Hanover county chaingang. So unusual was their case that the chief was not at first convinced that their story was true. However, they were placed in the Craven county jail and a telegram sent to Sheriff Cowan, of that county, informing him of the men's surrender. They stated that they had rather be back at work on the roads than tramping over the country.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan stated yesterday that he had received a telegram from Newbern with reference to the convicts and that he would send an officer at 5:30 o'clock this morning for Randolph Williams, who is wanted here, but that he knew nothing of Crumby. The officer, however, will look Crumby over while in Newbern and if he is wanted here, he will be brought along too. Williams is the young white man who escaped down the fire escape at the hospital when he was sent to that institution from the county roads for treatment.

ALLEN JURY COMPLETE.

Twelve Men From Grayson County to Decide Sidna's Fate.

Wytheville, Va., Nov. 11.—A jury was secured in the Wythe county Circuit Court today for the trial of Sidna Allen for the murder of Judge Thornton L. Massie, when the Allens shot up the Carroll county court house on March 14, last. The jury comes from Grayson county, which adjoins the county of Carroll. A motion of the defense to dismiss the jury was overruled by the court, and adjournment was then taken until tomorrow, when the opening statements of counsel will be made.

TURKS BEATEN AT TCHATALJA LINES

Bulgarians Win What May Be Last Great Battle of the Campaign

EUROPEAN DIPLOMACY ACTIVE

Bulgarians May, After All, Forego Triumphal Entry Into Constantinople—Question of Mediation Is Advanced

London, Nov. 11.—Judging by all precedents in the present war, the news from Constantinople tonight is the herald of another Turkish defeat at the Tchatalja lines, where a battle has been proceeding for the last two or three days.

The Turkish admission that so many wounded are arriving at the capital as to show that the Turks are offering fierce resistance, has a great significance, in view of previous admissions of a similar nature, and may be regarded as preparing the minds of Turks for another disappointment. It may be quite possible that this will provide the last great battle of the campaign.

There are indications that Bulgaria may after all forego a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports, Bulgaria will be content with finding Winter quarters for her army while the peace negotiations are going on and subsequent settlements are being arranged.

The question of mediation has been put forward another step, according to the announcement from Paris tonight that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting Turkey's request for mediation to the allies, and questioning on what terms the allies are disposed to accept mediation.

The revelation of the danger of the European peace lying on the antagonistic interests of Austria and Servia, appears to have quickened the sense of the powers and probably of the Balkan States also, to the imperative need of working in amicable co-operation to procure a settlement acceptable to all concerned.

Another factor making for the speedy cessation of the war is the approach of severe Winter conditions, which would give to the campaign an exceedingly arduous character.

There is talk still in Vienna of sending an ultimatum to Servia and other warlike ports, but it is believed Germany is exercising an ameliorating influence in the direction of persuading both Austria and Servia to consent to a postponement of the settlement until the whole matter can be dealt with by an European conference. Meanwhile, diplomacy is active in all the European capitals.

It is understood that after his important mission at Budapest is concluded, Dr. Daneff, president of the Bulgarian Chamber of Deputies, will go to the other European courts to explain the views of the allies. The Servian premier, M. Pachitch, after an important cabinet meeting, left Belgrade tonight for Uskup, to consult with King Peter on the situation.

The reported mobilization of Austro-Hungarian forces is denied. Roumania, however, is taking certain military measures with a view to be prepared for eventualities.

No late news of importance has been received from Adrianople, Scutari or other points where the armies of the allies have the Turkish troops in close quarters.

Fighting on Tchatalga Lines.

Constantinople, Nov. 11, 10 P. M.—The Bulgarians began an attack on the Turkish advanced positions along the Tchatalja line yesterday afternoon. The fighting continued throughout today.

Judging from the number of wounded arriving in Constantinople the Turkish troops are offering fierce resistance.

The Porte tonight sent a note by telegraph to the Turkish representatives abroad inquiring what progress had been made with respect to obtaining positions of the Balkan States in the matter of an armistice. The Porte still is without a reply to its recent appeal to the powers.

Cholera has appeared among the Bulgarian troops, according to reports. The number of wounded soldiers reaching the capital is increasing to such an extent that the war office has decided to send contingents to Bruisa, in Asia Minor. Every possible accommodation in the capital is being utilized for the care of the wounded. Several warehouses, a wing of the barracks, and other buildings have been transformed into hospitals, and two large hospitals in the suburbs of Kadikeui were opened today. The Unionist and other political clubs, temporarily closed by order of the government, also have been converted into hospitals.

An official bulletin says that during the last 24 hours six new cases of cholera, with two deaths, have occurred among the refugees. The usual sanitary and quarantine measures are being applied to shipping entering Constantinople.

The warships in the harbor were dressed today and salutes were fired in honor of the King of Italy's birthday.

WILL WILSON CALL AN EXTRA SESSION?

President-elect Follows Closely Various Expressions of Opinion

WINTER HOME AT COLUMBIA

South Carolina Buys His Boyhood Home and Invites Him to Spend Winters There—Will Likely Accept Invitation

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 11.—President-elect Wilson has his mind open on the question whether he shall call an extra session of Congress to revise the tariff.

He asked the newspaper correspondents tonight to obtain for him a list of the public men and business men who had declared themselves for or against the extra session. Though the Governor has tried to follow closely in the newspapers the various expressions of opinion, he said tonight he was afraid he might have missed some of them in his reading and that he was anxious to get all the opinions before him. It is known that Governor Wilson has a high regard for the opinion of Oscar Underwood, the majority leader of the Democrats in the last session and that in making up his mind, he will give careful attention to Mr. Underwood's argument. Mr. Underwood is reported as favoring an extra session.

"I have no immediate intention of making an announcement," said the President-elect tonight, "but I would like to get names of those who have given affirmative and those who have given negative opinions in regard to the advisability of calling an extra session. I refer not only to members of Congress, but to all important Democratic leaders."

The President-elect was asked if he had received many requests that an extra session be called. "No I have not," he replied, "but I can only answer for the telegrams. I have had none among the telegrams. My secretary has sifted out most of the letters and I know as yet only their general nature and I do not think they touch on a special session."

A newspaper dispatch from Washington was called to Governor Wilson's attention declaring that close friends of W. J. Bryan said he would decline a post in the cabinet.

"Oh, but Mr. Bryan did not say that," remarked the Governor, "that was just a piece of dope."

The future President was invited today to spend his Winters at Columbia, S. C., his old home. William E. Gonzales, editor of the Columbia State; Mayor W. H. Gibbes, Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina; J. E. Swearing, State superintendent of education, and James Woodrow, a cousin of Mr. Wilson and an instructor in the university, officially informed him of the purchase by the State of his boyhood home and that it was being remodelled for his use as a Winter home. It is probable that the Wilsons will spend part of their Winters there.

"It's a very prettey sentiment," said the Governor tonight. "When I was a half-grown boy my father built a house in Columbia which my mother altogether planned, and, of course, I remember all the details of its building and the development of the little piece of property. These gentlemen today came to tell me that my friends in South Carolina had interested themselves to get control of that house which they would fix up in any way convenient for me for use in the Winters if I wanted to go South while President. The house is near a very big and comfortable hotel, built since our time, that will make it quite convenient for the secretaries and their families to live within easy reach of me. It seemed to me it was an ideal suggestion and that it embodied a very pretty sentiment. In that little Southern home I had perhaps the largest number of my boyhood associates. Of course I expect to have my same old room when I return to the old homestead."

Mr. Gonzales, of the delegation, said after calling on the Governor, that the house had been purchased by the people of South Carolina and that it had been placed at the disposal of the President-elect "for a period of eight years."

The attention of the Governor was called today to a newspaper editorial which said that his conceptions of the Presidency could be found in his book on Congressional Government."

"I wrote that when I was 26 years old," said the Governor. "I have not read it since, so I don't know whether I have changed my opinions or not."

The President-elect has had a great number of requests for speeches, but he said he was declining them all as he had plenty of work ahead of him. Two engagements made before the election will be kept, one at a dinner of a Southern Society in New York and one at a banquet of the Commercial Club of Chicago, both in January. He said today he probably would take in the jubilee for him at Staunton, Va., his birth place, on his way to the conference of Governors at Richmond, Va., during Christmas week.

The Governor announced that in his vacation retreat he would go "incog."

SCARCITY OF RESIDENCES

Real Estate Dealers Call on Men of Capital of Wilmington to Supply The Need for More Houses —Public Statement

A public statement setting forth the scarcity of dwellings in Wilmington and appealing to the men of capital of the city to erect more houses so as to accommodate the rapidly-increasing population, has been issued by the real estate dealers of Wilmington. Attention was called by The Star several months ago to the scarcity of desirable residences and the constant increase in rent. Although a number of new houses have recently been erected and others are in course of construction the supply is not equal to the demand and if Wilmington is to grow and expand as all live and progressive citizens desire to see it do more residences must be built.

As previously pointed out by The Star residences have become so scarce and the rents so high that frequently one will find two and three families in a house that ordinarily would be occupied by only one family. This is done for two reasons—economy and to get in a desirable neighborhood. Since practically all the real estate men have not only seen the imperative need for more residences but have issued an appeal to the men of capital to erect them it is hoped that in a short time many new houses will spring up in various parts of the city and the present condition will be entirely relieved.

Here is the statement issued by the real estate men:

"More houses needed in Wilmington.

"Whereas, there are not enough houses in Wilmington to accommodate the present residents and,

"Whereas, new families are coming to Wilmington every week, and although new houses are being built constantly, we are embarrassed every day by calls for houses of all sizes, renting from $5 a month to $40, that we cannot supply, now

"Therefore, we, the undersigned real estate dealers make this public request of the men of capital of Wilmington that they build enough houses to accommodate the population, present and prospective, of our city.

"J. O. Reilly, M. C. Darby & Co., A. W. Pate, Jas. J. Loughlin, W. M. Cumming, Wilder & Metts, J. G. Wright & Son, L. W. Moore, D. R. Foster & Co., Hanover Realty Co., by L. J. Carter, president; The Fidelity Trust & Development Co., by D. N Chadwick, secretary and treasurer."

HACKMAN HELD UP.

His Passengers Tried to Rob Tom Brown Near Cemetery.

Residents of Carolina Heights were awakened early yesterday morning by a pistol shot and calls for help in the vicinity of Bellevue cemetery. One of those disturbed called police headquarters and the patrol wagon was sent out. Just before reaching Carolina Heights the patrol met a hack. The hackman asked the officers where they were going and when they told him of the report of person in distress in the vicinity of the cemetery the negro said that he was the one who fired the pistol and was doing the hollering.

The hackman was Tom Brown, who lives at No. 1311 North Seventh street, known to the police as "Rooster" Brown. He said that a white man and negro got in his hack at Fifth and Swann streets and asked to be driven to East Wilmington. When they neared the National cemetery his passengers demanded that they be taken out the Princess street road instead of Market street. The hackman protested and insisted that he must have more money if his route was changed, but finally he decided to go as directed. When they had reached a bridge near Bellevue cemetery, on Princess street, the men ordered the hack stopped. The white man offered the hackman $5 from which to get his fare. He could not change it. The negro passenger allowed that he would have all the money the hackman had on his person or kill him. The hackman began calling for help and at the same time reached under the front seat of his vehicle and pulled out a pistol, which he fired one time at the now fleeing men. He told the officers that he did not think he hit either one of them.

From the description given the police were inclined to think that the passengers were a guard from the convict camp and a "trusty" who had been to the city. They called up the camp and ascertained that all the guards and convicts were at the camp Sunday night.

CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY.

Handsome New House of Worship Completed at Wrightsboro.

The new Presbyterian church at Wrightsboro, about four miles from the city, was dedicated Sunday afternoon. The church is the gift of an elder of the First Presbyterian church and cost about $2,500. It is a mission of the First Presbyterian church and is in charge of Rev. Andrew J. Howell, assistant to the pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mr Howell presided at the meeting Sunday and offered the dedicatory prayer. Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, preached the sermon, following which the church was formally turned over to the board of trustees of the First church. A large congregation was present, many going out from Wilmington.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Several Cases Were Tried Yesterday —Whiskey Cases Continued

A number of defendants greeted the Recorder at the regular sitting of his court yesterday morning. Fred Pack, colored, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was given three months on the county roads. In a case against him for drunkenness and disorderly conduct judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs. Mary Epps, a negress, went to the farm for 30 days for vagrancy. H. Stein was fined $5 and costs for assault and battery on his brother-in-law, N. Shain. The principals are Syrians and the trouble occurred at the home of the defendant Sunday.

Robert Marshall was assessed $10 and costs for drunkenesc and disorderly conduct. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Alex. Merrick, colored, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Nol pros with leave was taken in a case against Alonzo Boston, a colored youth, charged with assault with deadly weapon, and similar action was taken in a case against James Smith alias James Elder, also a colored youth, charged with firing a pistol in the streets. Nol prosses were taken on account of the youth of the defendants. Mabel Moseley, colored, paid $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.

Several cases charging violation of the prohibition law were continued until today. J. J. Shepard, a white man, failed to appear, when called out. A capias was issued for him. There are two cases against him. He was under $100 justified bond with Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., his counsel, as surety. The Recorder stated from the bench if the defendant was are-arrested that no member of the bar be allowed to go on his bond. The Recorder intimated that hereafter bonds given by attorneys for their clients will not be accepted in his court, which is in line with the rule in the Superior Court. The other defendants charged with selling whiskey, whose cases also went over until today, are: Chas. Wiley, Paul Montague and Joe Smith, all colored. They went to jail. The witness in all the cases, including the two against Shepard, is Richard Gray, colored, who was arrested last week for gambling, but whose case has been continued. A case against Lizzie Shipman, colored, charged with assault with deadly weapon on Jasper Garable on June 1st, was also continued until today.

UNIQUE ATTRACTION

Presented by Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Dr. Thomas E. Green arrived in America about June 10th, 1912, after completing a thirteen-month tour around the world.

Beginning with the coronation in England, he visited every capital in Europe. Exceptional opportunities have given him access to places and things impossible to the usual traveler. He has seen and interviewed sovereigns, prime ministers, cabinet officers, governors, ecclesiastics, journalists, revolutionists, students, people of every sort and kind, in order to obtain facts and study conditions.

Turkey, Palestine, Egypt, India, the Philippines, China and Japan have been the setting of an oriental tour of wonderful interest.

He and his work are known wherever there is an intellectual American public. He stands now at the very front of the American platform.

His new lecture, "The Burden of the Nation," dealing with present conditions throughout the world will be to the last moment timely and full of vital interest.

Admiral Dewey was strongly impressed by the force and beauty of Dr. Green's address. "His ringing words are such as cannot fail to instil patriotism in the heart of everyone who hears him." It will also be of interest to note that Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, who has been acquainted for forty years with the best orators of the State of Iowa, regards Dr. Green as among the foremost in the history of that State. Hon. E. W. Hoch, Governor of Kansas, heard Dr. Green on the lecture platform and said that he was the richer because he heard him. "He is a master of the platform and possession, other interests making large instruct and entertain.

The Brotherhood is to be congratulated in securing Dr. Green in his new lecture, "The Burden of the Nations," especially at this time when interest is centered upon the war in the Balkans, as he will fill but a limited number of dates during the coming season, other interest making large demands upon his time.

Dr. Green will deliver his lecture in the Memorial Hall of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Single admission 50 cents.

MR. JONATHAN W. KING DEAD.

Passed Away Yesterday Afternoon After Long Illness—Funeral.

After an illness of some time, Mr. Jonathan W. King passed away at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his residence, No. 121 South Eighth street. He was 69 years old and a carpenter by trade. He had been in declining health for several years. Surviving are his wife and five children, these being Mr. R. M. King, Lumberton; Mr. J B. King, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. Thompson, Messrs. E. C. and F. L. King, Wilmington. The funeral will be held from the residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon and the body will be taken on the Newbern train Wednesday morning to Topsail Sound, where the interment will take place.

United States Court.

United States Court for this district will convene here this morning with Judge E. C. Connor, of Wilson, presiding. It is the regular Fall term and is for the trial of both criminal and civil matters. The first part of the term will be devoted to criminal cases and these will probably be disposed of in two or three days. The remainder of the term will be consumed in the hearing of civil matters.

Shadwell, Va., Nov. 11.—The National Beagle Club of America, held its sixth annual bench show here today. Folly, an imported dog, owned by George B. Post, Jr., of New York, won the championship cup for the best single hound. Watchman, also from the Post kennels, was adjudged the best dog.

MR. VAFIADI IN CHARLOTTE.

Greek Vice Consul Made Stirring Address There Sunday Afternoon.

Mr. D. G. Vafiadi, Vice Consul for Greece for North and South Carolina, returned yesterday at noon from Charlotte, where Sunday afternoon he addressed the Greeks of that community. The Charlotte Observer of yesterday devotes over a column to the meeting and the address of Mr. Vafiadi. At the close of the address about $1,000 was collected to be sent to the home land to aid in defraying the expenses of the war with the Turks. The following paragraphs from The Observer's story will be of interest here:

"Mr. Demetre G. Vafiadi, the Greek vice consul at Wilmington, made an address to the Greek subjects in the city yesterday afternoon at 2:30 in the Princess Theatre on West Trade street. About 100 of the Greeks turned out for the occasion, which was a form of thanksgiving for the victories of the allied armies over the Turks within the past few weeks.

"Mr. Vafiadi has been to this country for only eight years, but he is a master of the English language as well as six others. He is thoroughly posted on the situation now existing in the Balkan States, and is an eloquent speaker. The vice consul resides in Wilmington, not only on the mission of his country, but is prominently connected in business there, holding a responsible position with a lumber company of that place.

"The vice consul has been making trips into all sections of North and South Carolina each week for the past two months getting the Greeks interested and stirring up enthusiasm. Ten have left Charlotte within the past week for Greece, and it is said that the talk of Mr. Vafiadi decided several more to return. Some are said to be ready to leave here either today or tomorrow."

JAMES BRYCE RESIGNS

British Ambassador Gives Up His Post In United States

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—James Bryce, the British ambassador to the United States, has tendered his resignation and will return to England. There has been no official announcement of the resignation and the embassy will make no statement but it was learned tonight on high authority that Mr. Bryce informed President Taft of his action at the White House yesterday.

It is understood that the ambassador submitted to the President the name of the British government's choice for his successor and at the same time stated his own intention of returning home as soon as possible. President Taft, it is stated, requested that the announcement be withheld until he could have an opportunity to discuss it with Secretary of State Knox. Mr. Knox returned to the city tonight and it is expected that an official announcement tomorrow will follow his conference with the President.

CONSERVATIVES WIN.

Defeat Liberal Government in Vote in House of Commons.

London, Nov. 11.—While the House of Commons was debating the financial provisions of the Home Rule bill in committee this afternoon, an unexpected vote of an amendment offered by Sir Frederick Banbury, a Unionist member for the city of London, resulted in an opposition victory by a majority of 22.

The Conservatives were jubilant, and loudly demanded that the Liberal government resign, which according to precedent, it should do, if the vote, which was 228 to 206, was a genuine test of the strength of the government on the measure.

The temporary defeat of the government caused a great political sensation, but did not result in its retirement. The cabinet held a meeting tonight and decided to present a resolution in the House tomorrow which will be practically a demand for a vote of confidence and after some parliamentary red tape will endeavor to have Sir Frederick Banbury's amendment re-submitted and expunged.

The younger Conservatives prepared the trap for the Home Rulers and succeeded in getting a vote when many members were in the country or absent from the House, not expecting that important business would be taken up.

The government's majorities on previous details of the bill have been in the neighborhood of 100. But there has been much dissatisfaction among members of all parties over the provision compelling other sections of the United Kingdom to contribute to the support of Ireland without a voice in the expenditure of the money.

The cabinet council, held after the government's defeat, lasted two hours, at the end of which its decision not to resign was announced. An official statement which was issued declares that the adoption of the amendment was clearly due to a snap division on a motion which was not even put on the order paper and which was destructive of the resolution passed November 7th by a majority of 121.

"The government, therefore," the statement continues, does not consider that its defeat necessitates any change in its programme, which, in respect to home rule, has been supported by majorities seldom short of 100."

Claremore, Okla., Nov. 11.—A jury for the trial of H. O. Jeffries, editor of the Nowata Advertiser, charged with the murder of Mrs. Irene Goheen last April, was obtained today. The taking of evidence will begin tomorrow. Mrs. Goheen was an advertising solicitor employed on Jeffries' paper. Her body, with the skull fractured, was found in a pasture. Jeffries attributes his arrest to political enemies.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 11.—G. S. Beach, an apprentice seaman from one of the ships now on the Southern drill grounds, participating in target practice, died at the Naval Hospital today from a fractured skull. Physicians say, it is reported, Beach was injured in a football game played at Old Point Comfort several days ago.

K-r-i-t Value and K-r-i-t Service Mean Profit for Dealer and Owner Alike

K-r-i-t cars are a great "buy."

That statement is good in two directions. It applies to both the dealer and to the ultimate purchaser.

K-r-i-t character and the confidence the public has in K-r-i-t product, gain for the dealer a position in the trade and a prestige that no other car of this class could win for him. His standing is assured. His reputation is made.

The K-r-i-t purchaser enjoys a similar fortune. He gets full value for his money. He is not paying several profits, because all the essential parts of the K-r-i-t are made within the K-r-i-t organization, giving to dealer and buyer the profit that usually goes to the parts manufacturer in the assembled cars.

Therefore, if it's a K-r-i-t the World has come to understand that it is the biggest $900 worth this automobile era has ever known.

The prime factors in this situation are K-r-i-t Character, K-r-i-t Quality and K-r-i-t Success. They build up the dealer's reputation and give confidence to the buyer.

A dealer must be identified with cars of character, else his career is limited. If he expects to stay in business, he must sell cars next year as well as this.

That is why he finds the K-r-i-t his best investment. It gives permanence to his business and ever-increasing profits. It is, therefore, the logical car for you—the only car.

When you select the K-r-i-t you have a great and loyal organization behind you—an organization that backs up every car with a guarantee for a year. The proposition is as stable and as stanch as the car itself.

Moreover, back of the car, back of the purchaser and the dealer, is the K-r-i-t service which thousands of satisfied car owners have tested and proved.

The K-r-i-t motor, clutch and transmission are a unit. Among the new features are a greatly improved oiling system, with a reservoir of a gallon capacity at the bottom of the crank case, and an efficient sight oil feed on the dash.

There are Prest-O-Lite tanks on all models. At the option of the purchaser we will furnish a gas generator and a No. 26 Stewart Speedometer instead of a Prest-O-Lite tank; or for $10 additional a complete electric lighting plant, including five lamps and 100-hour storage battery.

On all models the bright parts are nickel and black enamel.

Other models—"KR" Roadster $900; "KD" Delivery $900; Completely equipped, f.o.b. Detroit.

Specific Blood Poison

Everyone realizes that this disease is a blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. Only a real blood purifier can have any curative effect on a blood poison so powerful as this. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Specific Blood Poison. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will purify your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and it will certainly cure Specific Blood Poison in all of its forms and stages. French Market Coffee Is Different From All Other Coffees

Only among the Parisians, the Turks, the Arabs and the Moors will you find coffee like the famous French Market Coffee. No ordinary American brown roast in the least resembles it. For over a hundred years this wonderful coffee has been served in the old French Market at New Orleans.

Now you all may get it—in hermetically-sealed packages—at your grocer's. Identically the same delicious coffee that was served every day in the old French Market.

Roasted by our unique hygienic process.

French Market Coffee

The Story of the Old French Market and Its Wonderful Coffee

The old French Market, in New Orleans, has been there for over 100 years. It is a long, low building, open sides filled with stalls where foodstuffs are sold. Before Spain sold Louisiana to France, coffee, as a beverage, was unknown in many parts of America. Even then, French coffee, with all its exquisite perfection, was served in this market. But its rare flavor could not then be retained in shipment.

Now the flavor of this famous roast and blend is retained. The old secret process of roasting is reproduced exactly by the French Market Mills. The flavor is retained in shipment by hermetically-sealed cans. There is no loss in fragrance or flavor by shipment through cool climates in these wonderful cans. The finest growths of coffees which come to America are unloaded on the docks of the French Market Mills. Because of these things, French Market Coffee is now the National Drink of the South.

SECOND DISTRICT PYTHIANS.

Will Meet in Newbern Tonight—Federal Court Case—Newbern Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 11.—Tomorrow night the annual meeting of the Second District Knights of Pythias will be held in this city at the lodge rooms of Athenia Lodge No. 8. At a special meeting of that lodge last night committees on reception and arrangements were appointed. There are 14 lodges in the second district and more than 100 delegates are expected to be in attendance. Among these will be Grand Chancellor Walker Taylor, of Wilmington; Grand Keper of Record and Seals, W. T. Hollowell, of Goldsboro; the Grand Master of Exchequer and the Past Grand Chancellor of Virginia and other high officers of the Grand Lodge and probably other officers of the State. The usual business of the District meeting will be first disposed of. This will include the consideration of various plans on foot for the good of the order. At the conclusion of the business meeting a reception will be tendered the visitors.

A case of unusual interest was disposed of at last week's term of Federal court which was held in this city. In this case Messrs. E. C. and G. E. Potter, of Beaufort, trading as the Beaufort Little Neck Clam Company, were under indictment for an alleged violation of the Pure Food and Drug Law. It was alleged that while doing an oyster and clam canning business at Beaufort several months ago, the defendants put up in cans a quantity of oysters which were not fit for the consumption of the public. Much evidence was introduced in the case and strong argument made by the defendants' counsel. The case was given to the jury and after deliberation they returned a verdict of not guilty. This was the first case of this kind to be tried in this district and the outcome was watched with interest.

The gas boat Lena, owned by Mr. S. A. Starling, of Hubert, ran into and sunk the gas boat Vance as she lay at the Norfolk Southern Railway Company's dock, foot of Hancock street, late last night. The captain of the Lena stated today that he came up the river at a rate of about eight miles an hour. When off the foot of Middle street he signalled for slow speed. There was no answer to his signal and the boat continued to plow through the water. Being unable to leave his wheel the captain signalled again and again to the engineer to cut off the power. Into the dock sped the Lena and straight for the Vance she went. The Vance was struck near the stern and the whole side was torn off. Within a few minutes she filled and sank below the water. Strange to say, although the impact must have been terrific, there were but few marks on the Lena. It is said that the engineer on the boat was asleep and did not hear the signals. Fortunately, no one was injured.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUN

Annual Event at A. & M. College Saturday—Other News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

West Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 11.—Saturday afternoon the regular annual cross-country run was held by the A. & M. track team, for the purpose or trying out the prospective track material in college, and to stimulate the interest in that branch of athletics. The race this year was run over a different course from that over which it has been run in previous years, which gave the people of Raleigh a better opportunity to witness the event. The start was at the capitol, and the course out Hillsboro street to A. & M. College and return, a distance of three miles. The first prize, a medal given by the Athletic Association was won by F. C. Smith who lowered his last year's record by twenty-six seconds, the time being 16 minutes, 45 seconds. Second prize, which was a sweater, was won by R. P. Harris; third prize, a pair of shoes given by Rosenthall, was won by D. E. Roberts, and fourth prize, a hat, given by C. R. Boone, was won by C. H. Haughton.

The race was watched by large number of spectators, and proved a good exhibition of long distance work, which pormises great strength in that branch of track work at A. & M., the coming season.

The officials of the race were as follows: Starter, B. L. Caldwell, manager 1912 track team; judges, L. C. Hand and A. J. Phillips; timekeeper, J. G. H. Geitner.

Coach Greene is now putting forth every effort to get the football team in first-class condition to meet the Navy on Saturday, November 16th. The improvement in the work of the team in the game with Wake Forest last Saturday was very encouraging, and with an equal amount of improvement during the two weeks of practice which the team will have between these two games, the Techs should stand a fair chance of capturing the game with the Middies, and in any event will give them a hard fight. Last year, when the Naval Academy tory, the Red and White gave them a great scare, being the only team to cross their line, and being one point in the lead at the end of the first half. This year the score should be even closer than last year, and every student is looking forward to the event, which will be one of the biggest games on the A. & M. schedule.

JUDGE W. L. THORP DEAD.

Leading Rocky Mount Citizen Passed Away Sunday—The Funeral.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 11.—Judge W. L. Thorp, member of the local bar, died Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at his home in this city. He had been in declining health several months. He was feeling better yesterday and was sitting on his front porch reading his paper and died in a chair. He was mayor of the city several years. At the time of his death he was judge of the Nash Recorder's Court. The Recorder's court at Nashville, adjourned today. Members of the Nashville bar attended the funeral in a body. The funeral was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church, by the pastor, Rev. W. D. Morton. It was the largest funeral ever held in this city. The burial was at the Thorp burying ground, two miles from the city. He leaves three brothers, all of this city, Messrs. A. P. Thorp, D. W. Thorp and Dr. F. J. Thorp; also three children, William, Mildred and Mrs. J. L. Horne, Jr.

WHITEVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Returns From Election—Personal and General News Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 9.—The official returns for Columbus county from Tuesday's election were made complete yesterday. Craig received 1,894 votes; Meares 424; Settle 343. Congressman H. L. Godwin received 2,058 votes. For State Senator Dr. L. B. Evans received 1,947 votes and his opponent, Mr. C. V. Williams, 746. The average majority for the county ticket is 1,250 votes. In the Senatorial primary Senator Simmons secured a total majority over both of his opponents of 222 votes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Carson gave a Hallowe'en party in honor of a few invited friends. It was a very pleasant occasion and much enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Carson make their home at Charlotte, but spend their Winters in Whiteville.

This has been one of the dryest Falls ever known in this section. There has almost been a water famine, it being necessary in many cases for people to haul water for domestic purposes. The rains this week came as a welcome relief, though a sufficient amount of water has not yet fallen to relieve the situation materially.

Miss Myrtle Cashwell left last week for Bolton to accept a position with the Waccamaw Lumber Company.——The ladies of the Civic League are busy making preparations for a bazaar which will be held in the Court House through the week beginning December 11th.——Miss Iola Baldwin has gone to Wilmington where she will spend several months with her sister, Mrs. W. L. West. She will also take a commercial course while she is away.——Dr. H. B. Maxwell will leave next week for Jacksonville, Fla., to attend a meeting of the State Medical Association, which will be in session at that time.——Mr. Will H. Baxley, who was formerly in the insurance business here, is now located in Jacksonville, Fla., being State agent for the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company.——Mr. Henry Jones, who has been sometime assistant to Agent Barclay, has been promoted to the agency at Jacksonville, N. C., and left Wednesday to take charge of his new position.——A movement is on foot to equip Madison avenue, the street leading from Vineland to the Court House, with electric lights. Mayor J. B. Schulken has appointed a committee of citizens to look into the matter and make the necessary arrangements.

David J. Lewis, Esq., of the Whiteville bar, left this morning for Lillington, where he will attend Harnett county court next week.——Mrs. C. G. Richardson is visiting friends in Wilmington.——Miss Grace Lumsden has gone to Latta, S. C., to spend several weeks with friends.

OFFICER ASSAULTED

Maxton Man Injured Saturday Night—Desperate Character Wanted

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 11.—Saturday night Night Watchman J. A. Peacock flushed a covey of gamblers. Later he heard that he could find one or more of them at Bruton's livery stable and started there. When he reached there he found a party of negroes in a car ready to start off on a frolic but two of them quarreling. On trying to arrest one of them, who earlier in the evening, had been of the gambling party, the negro, Will Douglas, rushed him and took his club hitting the officer over the head. The negro retreated a few steps and the officer went for help and found Chief of Police S. H. Dunlay nearby. Returning they started for the negro who had the club and Mr. Dunlap was notified by the negro, who was crouched behind a post of the platform not to come nearer or he would be killed. As the officer kept coming the negro tried to rush him. As he came the police fired his pistol but the bullet went wild and the negro was near at hand by then. In order to escape the rush and the blow of the officer's billy in the hands of the negro, Mr. Dunlap jumped from the cotton platform and dodging the blow fired again, the bullet striking in the right leg of the negro just below the knee and drilling a clear hole through the bone and then out through the large muscle of the leg, cutting the large artery there.

Before help could be secured the negro came very near bleeding to death. He was carried to the office of Dr. L. R. Kirkpatrick and his wound was examined. From there he was taken to the Maxton Hospital and so much blood had been lost that it was found necessary to inject a salino solution into his veins. For over an hour the pulse was very feeble but he rallied and is now stronger with the chances of recovery in his favor. For awhile after his recovery from the loss of the blood it was thought that his leg would have to be amputated but unless complications develop this will not be necessary.

The negro is a desperate character and is one of three brothers who have served various terms on the chain gangs of this and surrounding counties. In fact, telegrams had been received from several places asking that he be arrested. So after answering the charge of gambling, which was the beginning of the trouble, he will be returned to these places to answer the various charges the officers have against him.

ADDITIONAL INDICTMENTS

Johnson Charged With More Violations Of White Slave Law

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—The Federal grand jury late this afternoon returned additional indictments against Jack Johnson, champion pugilist, on further charges of violations of the Mann Act against inter-State transportation of women for immoral purposes. The indictments charge Johnson with taking Belle Schreiber from Milwaukee to Chicago; from Indianapolis, Ind., to Chicago; from Detroit, Mich., to Chicago, and from Chicago to Milwaukee. The name of Lucille Cameron, of Minneapolis, does not figure in any of the indictments.

FIRE IN FAYETTEVILLE.

Residence Destroyed During Early Hours Sunday Morning.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says:

"A very destructive fire occurred on Person street, this city, Sunday night, about 12:30 o'clock, when the residence of Mr. F. H. Hobbs was completely gutted and left standing almost a shell. The flames started in the kitchen, from the best the firemen can tell.

"The fire department arrived on the scene as promptly as could be expected, considering the unseasonable hour, 12:30 A. M. They turned on the hose and subdued the flames, and managed to get out some of the furniture belonging to Mr Hobbs, on the first floor, but in a damaged state. A conservative estimate of the loss to Mr. Hobbs, on dwelling and furniture, is $2,000, covered by insurance.

Mr. W. H. Coffey, who occupied the second floor, was awakened to find smoke and flames issuing into his sleeping apartment. He barely had time to drag out his wife and little son, all three in their night clothes, and escape to the street. This unfortunate family lost every article of their clothing and all of their furniture. Mr. Coffey had $500 insurance, but he has not been able to estimate his loss."

BUNCOMBE TO CELEBRATE.

Will Hold Jollification Meeting at Asheville Tuesday Night.

Asheville, Nov. 10. — Preparations are being made for the great jollification meeting that is to be held in Asheville Tuesday night, and every indication points to the greatest celebration ever held in the county.

Governor-elect Craig, Senator Simmons and Representative Gudger will be the orators of the evening, although the physical condition of Senator Simmons precludes his saying more than a few words. In addition to these noted speakers, several of the recently elected county and State officials will make short talks.

The parade will be the greatest ever seen in the county. It will be headed by the speakers of the evening in carriages, and next in line will come the recently organized "Governor's Horse Guards," under command of Capt. Robert R. Reynolds. The two local companies of the North Carolina National Guard will also be in line and following them will come the voters of the county, bearing torches which arrived yesterday. Red fire and other fireworks will be prominent.

BUILDING TO SOUTHPORT.

Amendment to Charter of South Atlantic Trans-Continental Railroad.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 11.—An amendment to the charter of the South Atlantic Trans-Continental Railroad Co., just filed, changes the name to the South Atlantic & Western Railroad Company, H. R. Hickerson, president, and J. L. Council, secretary. This company is building from Knoxville via Waynesville and Asheville to Rutherfordton, thence ultimately to Southport via Charlotte, many being of the opinion that the Seaboard Air Line, Rutherfordton to Charlotte and Wilmington, will be used for this Southport outlet to the coast. Work is now in progress from Waterville on the Tennessee line toward Waynesville along the Pigeon river, the company using all the State convicts the State can assign to this work.

MANCHESTER MILL BURNED.

Report Reaches Fayetteville of Destructive Factory Fire.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer says:

"Just before going to press we received a message over the phone from Manchester, 12 miles from Fayetteville, that the cotton mill there was burned Sunday morning. We could get no details."

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business, without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Teddy, Taft and Treachery. That's all.

The Sick Man may as well be looking for a hospital in Asia.

In the list of minor prophets, don't forget to mention Chairman Hilles.

The silent vote will now begin to make a noise at the pie counter.

The steam roller used at Chicago is in the junk heap with the big stick.

Our idea of a habitual optimist is a Democrat who keeps believing in the Democratic party till it can indulge in a landslide.

There are some things more foolish than betting on the ponies. One of them is to go up as a passenger with a trick aviator.

Europe has a "concert" every time something gets the matter with Turkey. Where have we heard of that concert before?

"Wilson owes nothing to the trusts," says a contemporary. Others who do owe them are not in a position to pay the debt. Poor trusts!

With good cane syrup selling at fine prices, North Carolina farmers have a splendid opportunity to diversify with another good money crop.

The Jacksonville Times-Union says: "We do not believe the Bull Moose party, so-called, will last a year." We can not share that opinion. Roosevelt's health seems to be good.

President Taft need not go back to the practice of law, if he doesn't care to. He can have more fun trying to keep the Bull Moose from getting what is left of the Republican party.

One thing demonstrated by the election is that the Republican party could not afford to divide. The G. O. P. is the victim of the ambition of Theodore Roosevelt to serve a third term.

One reason why we always hated to jump on the Republicans about a Bulgarian rush on the pie counter, was that we expected any day to win a Democratic victory, with all that it means.

President-elect Wilson is soon going away for a six-weeks' vacation. By the time he gets back the newspapers will have his cabinet ready for him and will be able to advise him whether to call an extra session of Congress or not.

Men are often deceived in their friends or deceived by them. Most of us may now have a friend who in the future may knock us through the ropes and keep us from being elected President. We never know when a false friend is going to get our goat.

If we remember correctly the election of Governor Wilson was to paralyze business, in the confident opinion of the New York Tribune. The Stock Exchange report in that paper says of Wednesday afternoon: "The unexpected happened and stocks shot up like rockets, and there was a general advance in the list ranging from 1 to 5 points. * * * It was truly an energetic bull movement which drove the shorts to cover, and the gains were so uniformly large that the movement could not be attributed to a buying of specials. The volume of trading was large, exceeding one million shares, and the street turned to the theory that business was destined to improve regardless of political parties." We also observe that on the day following the election the Duncannon Iron & Steel Company, in this State, announced an increase of wages from $4.50 to $4.75 per ton.—Philadelphia Record.

ROOSEVELT IS FEARED.

Though President Taft and the Republican party were overwhelmingly defeated at the polls on the fifth of November, the President is far from being discouraged. The smoke of battle had not lifted before the President was out in a statement declaring that he had plans for holding together and strengthening the Republican party. In an interview at Columbus, Ohio, on the day following the election, he declared that the party will continue to exist, that it will be as active as in the past, and that "there is no reason to believe that its chances of future success were not excellent."

This shows the President's splendid courage and optimism in the face of defeat. It has been said that the President's defeat will eliminate him as its leader, but as a matter of fact, he is in better position than ever to lead the party. Though defeated, he is the biggest figure in his party, and his defeat was because of the policy of his party. He was standing for the same Republicanism that has won in nearly every Presidential election for more than 50 years. If the Republican party discards him as its leader, it will repudiate itself, for his administration typically represents Republicanism and it will be practically that administration that the party must successfully defend in order to rebuild the party. The voters of the United States have repudiated the Republican party, but not because of Taft. Therefore, the Republican party is not likely to repudiate Taft, because Taft and the Republican party are one and the same. He represents it and its principles more strongly than any other Republican, and in equipment and prestige he is yet the strongest leader that his party has.

It will require all the official returns of the popular vote in the United States, in order to show whether the Republican party was beaten as badly as it appears to have been beaten. Of course, it was badly beaten in the Electoral College, but in popular vote it may turn out that, though the Republican party may be third in the race, its popular vote may make a good showing along with that of the Progressive party. The popular vote of the Republican and Progressive parties is said to be 1,500,000 greater than that which elected Wilson, and from that it is to be inferred that we have three strong parties in the field. So far as Col. Roosevelt and the Progressive party are concerned, it made a strong and exceedingly remarkable showing, and the result of the election shows that by no means did the election altogether eliminate third termism. Roosevelt's big popular vote indicates that there are sufficient third term voters in this country to make it a menace in the future. Judging from comments in the financial journals, Wall Street is afraid of Roosevelt's strength, and this from the New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle indicates that it is feared that he has not yet met his Waterloo:

"Judging from the upward bound of the stock market, one would imagine that this week's elections furnished basis for genuine enthusiasm and unalloyed satisfaction from the standpoint of the country's material interests. A more rational view would seem to be that they furnish occasion for sober reflection. It is difficult to see how they can in any way serve to stimulate business activity. The most that can be hoped for is that the results will not serve to retard the growing trade revival. It is true, of course, that Mr. Roosevelt has not captured the Presidency, and hence our Constitution and representative government remain safe for the time being, but there was the slightest chance that he would. On the other hand, the extent of the popular support accorded the Third party, organized by him, comes as a decided shock. Thereby he acquires power in the political world which will make him a constant menace for the future. He has secured more electoral votes than President Taft and has rent the Republican party from stem to stern.

"What effect the present defeat, so disastrous in nature and extent, will have upon the future of the Republican party it would be futile to attempt to predict. We make some observations on the subject in a subsequent article. It should be remembered, however, that the party is not divided into mere oposing factions, but into hostile and warring elements. And yet, the two contesting forces have one controlling principle in common. They both profess adherence to a protective tariff. Under ordinary circumstances this would incline both to favor attempts to get together and preserve the party for the purpose of furthering this principle. On the present occasion such a course is out of the question, for Mr. Roosevelt will never get together on anybody or anything except himself. The fact which stands out most prominently, therefore, is that the country has not got rid of him. He not only remains, but he retains infinite capacity for creating trouble; and trouble making that will redound to his advantage has always been his chief function in life."

This makes it look bad for the Republican party, and if we are to continue to have two warring protection parties, both of which are in the minority, it will be good for the Democratic party. If Wilson will give us an administration that will strengthen the Democratic party, we will leave it to the Republican and Third Term parties to fight for second place.

WATERFRONTS FOR MANUFACTURING.

The New York Tribune tells us "Why the South Brooklyn Waterfront Attracts Worldwide Attention." The fact is, Brooklyn attracted the attention of keen capitalists on account of her extensive waterfront, as they recognized what a great opportunity water transportation furnished for manufacturing as well as for commerce.

We are surprised to learn from the Tribune that Brooklyn's "modern shipping and factory terminals excel those of any similar centre in the world." Far sighted capitalists freely invested in waterfront sites there because they furnished two oportunities—one for commerce and another for manufacturing. The development on the waterfront in Brooklyn during the past few years no doubt will make Brooklyn the manufacturing centre of New York. America's largest city is its greatest manufacturing city, and water transportation has been properly appreciated as a factor in manufacturing. Piers of unusual size have been erected, and the strength and size of the piers permit of the construction of marginal railways to handle freight between the vessels at the docks and large manufacturing and storage establishments in the vicinity.

That cheapens transportation and gives Brooklyn superior advantages for manufacturing. The result is that old and new piers have ben constructed with a view to reaching vast manufacturing establishments, and naturally manufacturing industries are being attracted on account of the double shipping facilities to be had by water and rail.

Brooklyn's modern docks can accommodate the largest vessels afloat. Several modern piers are nearly 1,500 feet long and 33 feet wide. The channel opposite the piers is 35 feet deep and 1,200 feet wide, and Brooklyn's waterfront is thus equipped for making manufacturing and commerce go hand in hand.

THE POPULAR VOTE

While Wilson's great electoral vote on last Tuesday has caused surprise, it is more surprising to learn that the combined vote of Roosevelt and Taft was greater than his by 1,500,000. On the popular vote as figured up so far, Wilson received approximately 6,200,000, Roosevelt 4,200,000 and Taft 3,500,000.

Thus we see that Wilson's plurality over Roosevelt was 2,000,000, while he beat Taft by 2,700,000. Roosevelt only received 700,000 more votes than Taft, showing approximately that the Republican vote was about divided equally between Roosevelt and Taft, allowing several hundred thousand Democratic votes in the West to be cast for Roosevelt.

The official figures may change these estimates, but not very materially. The fact stands out that the Democratic party is now the majority party, and that it will take fusion of the two minority parties to beat it.

Thousands of men in the various States never went to the polls to vote. No doubt some were disgusted, while others took to the woods because they lacked the courage of their convictions.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The channel of Salt river never needs any dredging.—Greensboro News.

If those Wilmington gentlemen had succeeded at the game they were trying to play as a matter of course, nothing would have been said about it.—Durham Herald.

Alone, practically alone, there sits in the White House a pathetic figure, bowed under the yoke of humiliation and defeat. He is William Howard Taft, four years ago hailed a victor with loud acclaim, the toast of millions and the hope and pride of America's great majority. And as he sits in painful soliloquy, we doubt not that the knife that entered his heart is keener and has gone deeper because it was thrust home by the hand of an erstwhile friend, a brother "who walked the same well known paths and gazed upon each well known scene." The thought that must come to Mr. Taft, one in no way tending to make less bitter the cup whereof he has drunk so deeply, is that he placed his faith on a broken reed, and that his big heart, so freely opened to a traitor, could not suspect the assassin't dagger that lurked beneat the cloak of friendship.—Asheville Citizen.

Magical Effect of New Face Peeler

(Woman's National Journal.)

To maintain a clear, rosy, youthful complexion, there's nothing so simple to use and yet so effective as ordinary mercolized wax, which you can get at any drug store. Just apply the wax at night as you would cold cream; in the morning wash it off with warm water. If you've never tried it you can't imagine the magical effect of this harmless home treatment. The mercolide in the wax causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in minute particles a little at a time, and soon you have entirely shed the offensive cuticle. The fresh young underskin now in evidence is so healthy and girlish looking, so free from any appearance of artificiality, you wonder why you had not heard of this marvelous complexion renewing secret long ago.

To get rid of your wrinkles, here's a formula that is wonderfully effective: 1 oz. powdered saxolite, dissolved in 1-2 pt. witch hazel. Bathe the face in this and you will be simply astonished at the results, even after the first trial.

ORDERED TO BREAK LAW?

Federal 16-Hour Law Violated on Instruction From Ga. R. R.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 11.—Testimony tending to show that the Federal 16-hour law was violated on instructions from Georgia Railroad officials was presented to the arbitrators engaged in settling the Georgia Railroad strike situation today. It was declared that Conductor Paschal, whose discharge for alleged violation of the 16-hour law was one of the underlying causes of the recent strike, was ordered to continue his run over the legal time limit. A telegram signed by W. S. Brand, superintendent, and reading: "Proceed to Lithonia regardless of the 16-hour law," was read to the arbitrators by James Murdock, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

"We have 26 more telegrams from Mr. Brand to the same effect and can show them now," asserted Mr. Murdock. Judge Chambers, one of the arbitrators, declared the one produced was sufficient for the time being. Mr. Paschal's testimony occupied almost the entire day's session.

When the board met this morning reading of the correspondence leading up to the strike was concluded. The bulk of the correspondence tended to show that the union demanded the reinstatement of Paschal and A. M. Morgan, a trainman, with full pay for all time lost and that the unions sought a conference with railroad officials previous to the issuing of the strike order for the purpose of reaching a settlement of the Paschal-Morgan controversy.

ANNUAL CONVENTION TODAY.

Daughters of Confederacy Gather at Nation's Capital.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Hundreds of Southern women wearing the red and white ribbon of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, arrived in Washington today to prepare for the 19th annual convention of the organization which will be opened tomorrow.

Word was received by the local officials of the Daughters today that Mrs. Alexander B. White, president general of the organization, would be unable to attend the convention. Mrs. White is detained at her home in Paris, Tenn., by the grave illness of her husband. In her absence Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, first vice president of the order, will preside. Despite her absence, Mrs. White probably will be elected to the presidency.

With the arrival of the delegates, a round of social entertainment for them began.

The big event of the convention will be the laying of the cornerstone of the monument to Confederate soldiers buried in Arlington cemetery tomorrow afternoon. Col. Hilary A. Herbert, Secretary of the Navy in President Cleveland's cabinet, will lay the cornerstone, and officiate as master of ceremonies and W. J. Bryan will deliver the ovation of the day.

The first session of the convention will be a "welcome night" tomorrow evening, when President Taft will welcome the delegates to the capital.

Congressman Levy Says Efforts to Buy Jefferson Home Are Useless

New York, Nov. 11.—Efforts of the newly-formed Jefferson Monticello Memorial Association to get the government to purchase the old Thomas Jefferson home will prove useless, according to a statement made tonight by Congressman Jefferson M. Levy, owner of the property, which is located near Charlottesville, Va.

Congressman Levy said he would not listen to any proposal for the sale of Monticello and had been advised by constitutional lawyers that the government had no right to deprive him of the property. It has been in the hands of his family for the past 80 years.

Bills are now pending before Congress providing that the government acquire the estate through its power of eminent domain.

British Steamer Clears With Cotton—Norwegian Steamer Clears

The British steamer Fullerton, Capt. McDonald, cleared yesterday for Bremen with cargo of 10,500 bales cotton, valed at $690,000. Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Son exported the cargo and are agents for the vessel.

The Norweigan steamer Evanger, which has been discharging cargo of fertilizer materials here, cleared light yesterday for Baltimore.

No indigestion in Cottolene doughnuts

Cottolene heats to a higher temperature than either butter or lard, without burning or smoking. The high temperature of the fat hardens the albumen, forming a thin crust or coating, which prevents the food from becoming fat-soaked. The use of Cottolene saves half the time in frying.

Cottolene is a vegetable oil shortening—as healthful as olive oil—easily digested—makes food rich and crisp, but never greasy.

Cottolene is absolutely pure and clean in its origin, its manufacture, and method of packing. It is never sold in bulk — always in air-tight tin pails which protect it from dirt, dust and odors of the grocery. Purchase a pail of Cottolene from your grocer today.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

SYSTEMATIC MAIL ROBBERY.

Capias Sworn Out by Federal Grand Jury for Woman.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 10.—It was announced here today that a capias has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. M. N. Parker, daughter of A. H. Faulkner, postmaster of McMinnville, Tenn., charged with robbing the mails.

Mrs. Parker was a clerk in the postoffice at McMinnville. Execution of the capias has been temporarily stayed on account of her physical condition.

On evidence secured by postoffice inspectors, Mrs. Parker was recently indicted by the Federal grand jury charged with robbing the mails. Investigation was made by the officials of a systematic robbing of the mails in Nashville and Chattanooga said to have been going on for several months.

TWO WOMEN TESTIFY

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Their Health—Their own Statements Follow.

New Moorefield, Ohio.—"I take great pleasure in thanking you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had bearing down pains, was dizzy and weak, had pains in lower back and could not be upon my feet long enough to get a meal. As long as I laid on my back I would feel better, but when I would get up those bearing down pains would come back, and the doctor said I had female trouble. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was the only medicine that helped me and I have been growing stronger ever since I commenced to take it. I hope it will help other suffering women as it has me. You can use this letter."—Mrs. CASSIE LLOYD, New Moorefield, Clark Co., Ohio.

South Williamstown, Mass.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound certainly has done a great deal for me. Before taking it I suffered with backache and pains in my side. I was very irregular and I had a bad female weakness, especially after periods. I was always tired, so I thought I would try your medicine. After taking one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt so much better that I got another and now I am a well woman. I wish more women would take your medicine. I have told my friends about it."—Mrs. ROBERT COLT, Box 45, South Williamstown, Mass.

FASTER FREIGHT SERVICE

Congressman John M. Faison Advised That North Carolina Investigation Will be in Connection With General Hearing.

The Star is in receipt of a letter from Congressman John M. Faison, of the Third North Carolina district, enclosing an order from the Inter-State Commerce Commission directing that the complaint of Eastern Carolina truck and fish shippers be consolidated with the general investigation of private car transportation now being conducted by the Commission.

Dr. Faison writes that the dates and places of these hearings will be given later and he urges all shippers to be prepared with facts and figures at the proper time to testify as to inadequate and insufficient train and car service and slow schedules of these trains in the daily shipments of fruits, berries, vegetables and fish from Eastern Carolina. Dr. Faison further writes:

"I trust you will call attention through your valued paper to these hearings, soon to be held, so that these growers and shippers may attend these hearings and be fully prepared with facts and data to fully establish their complaints and to show such constant losses sustained annually for lack of adequate car and train service and fast schedules. A committee of growers and shippers from each shipping station should attend these hearings with data of such losses gathered at their shipping stations for the last several years.

"In this way a complete investigation could be made at these hearings, and, no doubt, all such abuses properly corrected, I hope, so that these great berry and trucking and fishing industries shall no longer be hindered by want of proper fast transportation. Then both growers and shippers and railroads can share greater profits from these fruit, vegetable and fish industries, which promise so much to this coast section of the State."

The order in the case is as follows:

"It appearing that there is much complaint from growers of fruits and vegetables, and dealers in fish, shipping these articles from points on the line of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company in North Carolina to points north and east, on its own line and connections, such as Washington, D. C.; Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pittsburg, Pa.; New York, Albany and Buffalo, N. Y.; Providence, R. I., and Boston, Mass., that said carriers constantly fail to furnish an adequate and prompt supply of refrigerator and express cars suitable for the transportation in question, and likewise fail to perform said transportation with reasonable expedition, by reason of which inadequacies in equipment and service the shippers of these commodities as aforesaid are subjected to substantial and irreparable damage:

"It is ordered, That a hearing or hearings be had with respect to the above-stated matters, in connection with the general investigation now under way before the Commission in the proceeding entitled 'in the matter of private cars' at such times and places as the Commission may hereafter designate.

"It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served upon the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company; Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac Railroad Company; Washington Southern Railway Company; the Pennsylvania Railroad Company; the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company; the New York Central & Hudson River Railroad Company; the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company; Erie Railroad Company; West Shore Railroad Company; Boston & Albany Railroad Company; Boston & Maine Railroad Company; Lehigh Railroad Company, and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company.

"By order of the Commission."

SERVICE PRACTICE AT FORT.

Very Successful Season of Target Practice Ended Saturday.

The target service practice which has been in progress at Fort Caswell for several days, was concluded with the night practice Saturday night, the season of practice having been the most successful of any held at the fort in several years. Three visiting companies, which have been assisting with the practice, have returned to their own stations.

The practice the past week consisted of firing on targets with the rapid-fire guns of the fort, the course of the balls being followed by means of "tracers" which illuminated their path. The tug, Gen. G. W. Getty, Capt. Crockett, towed the targets, and the Gen. Geo. Weeks, Capt. Brooks, of Fort Moultrie, and Gen. J. M. Jackson, Capt. Lettles, of Fort Scriven, Ga., acted as station boats during the practice. The Getty and Weeks left Saturday midnight for Fort Moultrie, where they will assist in a week's practice. The J. M. Jackson will also leave Charleston today, to act as station for the Fort Moultrie practice.

SIXTH DISTRICT ODD FELLOWS

Convention This Afternoon and Evening With Goodwill Lodge No. 192, of Wallace, N. C.—The Programme

This morning's northbound train will take to Wallace, N. C., a large number of prominent Odd Fellows from this section of the State to attend this afternoon and evening the regular meeting of the I. O. O. F. Convention of the Sixth district, which will convene at 2:30 P. M., with Goodwill Lodge No. 192, of that progressive little city.

Among those who will attend are Mr. W. H. Badon, of Wilmington, supervisor of the Sixth district; Mr. T. H. Patrick, of Clinton, president of the convention; Mr. L. W. Moore, of Wilmington, vice president of the convention, and Mr. M. C. Guthrie, of Southport, secretary. With the opening ode and prayer by Past Grand Wm. Murray, the welcome address will be delivered by A. L. McGowen, Esq., one of Wallace's leading young business men, the response being by Secretary M. C. Guthrie. After enrollment of delegates and reports from lodges on the rally period, the general programme will be taken up with discussions of subjects by lodge representatives, as follows:

Cape Fear Lodge No. 2—"Have Our District Conventions been of Benefit to the Order in their District?"

Columbus Lodge No. 27—"Practical Fraternity."

Atlantic Lodge No. 43—"How the Principles of Odd Fellowship and the Education of our Orphans Benefit the Country at Large."

Orion Lodge No. 67—"Rebekah Degree."

Clinton Lodge No. 124—"The Most Practical Means of Increasing Lodge Attendance."

Wilmington Lodge No. 139—"How Best to make Members Feel at Home While Visiting our Lodge."

Hanover Lodge No. 145—"The Value of Unison in Team and Lodge Work."

Goodwill Lodge No. 192—"The Advantage or Disadvantage to the Order by Lodges Working under the Club Plan."

Warsaw Lodge No. 203—"Our Orphans' Home."

Burgaw Lodge No. 243—"What makes Better Members? The man who talks a lot and does little or the man who says little but is always on hand and willing to sacrifice something for the Lodge."

N. C. Odd Fellow, by Grand Secretary B. H. Wodell.

Adjournment for supper.

At the evening session beginning with the regular opening exercises, there will be an address on Odd Fellowship by Grand Master Charles Dewey, of Goldsboro, followed by the election of officers and the selection of the next place of meeting. The convention promises to be unusually well attended this year and fraught with much interest for all who attend.

INTEREST IN UNALGA'S TRIP

Commander of Cutter Rushing to Turkish Waters Formerly Here

The Star of Sunday morning carried an Associated Press dispatch stating that the United States revenue cutter Unalga had been ordered to rush immediately from Port Said, at the Suez Canal, to the coast of Asiatic Turkey, to protect Americans endangered by Turkish massacres.

It was noted with great interest locally that Capt. R. O. Crisp, formerly stationed in Wilmington on the revenue cutter Seminole, was in command of the Unalga, Uncle Sam's newest and swiftest cutter. In the event of the fall of Constantinople Capt. Crisp will be depended upon to take care of the American colony until the cruisers Montana and Tennessee, also ordered to Turkish waters, arrive. The Unalga was on a globe-girdling trip and fortunately happened to be near the scene of hostilities, while it will take the cruisers probably three weeks to make the trip from the Southern drill grounds.

ORTON TRANSFER CO.

Handsome New Ton and a Half Truck Added to Its Equipment.

The Orton Transfer Company, one of the pioneer transfer companies in the city, has just added to its equipment a handsome new ton and a half White truck that is decidedly one of the prettiest and most powerful motor vehicles in the city. It will supplement the work of the three-quarter ton truck now in the service of the company and will greatly enlarge the transfer possibilities of the company. The new truck arrived yesterday and it will be placed in the hands of a competent and experienced driver and crew. The company has headquarters at The Orton and is doing a general transfer and freight delivery business from that downtown centre.

SPECIAL MEETING.

A special or called meeting of the Board of Commissioners of New Hanover County will be held at the Court House in said county on Friday, Nov. 22nd, 1912, at 3 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of considering a request of the Tidewater Power Company for a grant by said Board of Commissioners of an easement and right-of-way over and along a ten-foot strip on the west side of Federal Point road from its intersection with the southern limits of the city of Wilmington at Third and Greenfield streets, crossing Greenfield Creek to a point where said Federal Point road strikes the northern line of a tract or parcel of land conveyed by D. B. Gilliland to J. H. Hanby by deed duly registered in Book 17 at page 371 of the records of the Register of Deeds of New Hanover county aforesaid; and for the further purpose of electing a successor to Dr. C. D. Bell, coroner of New Hanover County, who has sent in his resignation to said Board.

This the 12th day of November, 1912.

SCHOOLS ARE OVERCROWDED

Buildings Both In the City and Rural Districts Need Enlarging—Regular Meeting of County Board of Education

The fact that all of the schools of the city and some in the rural districts are overcrowded was emphasized at the regular meeting of the Board of Education yesterday afternoon. Notwithstanding the handsome new Bear Memorial building erected in the city since the last scholastic year, all the white schools are crowded and more room could easily be used. At two points in the county, Seagate and Castle Haynes, the buildings are too small to accommodate all the pupils.

The board decided to visit in a body the school at Seagate and inquire into its needs and take action at a subsequent meeting. The needs of the Castle Haynes school will also likely be looked after by the board. It appears that in order to increase the facilities in the city it will be necessary to have a bond issue, an election on which was authorized at the last General Assembly. However, it is not likely that an election will be held in the immediate future.

Although the Bear Memorial building, on Market street, has been in service for several weeks no exercises have as yet been held formally dedicating the school. It is likely that the building will be dedicated on North Carolina Day, Friday, December 6th, and it is hoped to have present on this occasion Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State superintendent of public instruction.

The matter of awarding a contract for the fire escapes at the Bear Memorial building and for another fire escape at the High School building was left with Chairman Carr with power to act. The accounts of Mr. H. McL. Green, county treasurer, for the past month were audited.

J. O. Carr, Esq., chairman, presided and in attendance were the other two members, Messrs. C. E. Taylor, Jr., and J. G. L. Gieschen, and Prof. Washington Catlett, superintendent of public instruction, and Mr. H. McL. Green.

A FREAK POTATO

Col. Wiley Fort Has Veined Yam Growing Through Knot

Col. W. B. Fort, the genial Confederate veteran who is almost as well-known in New Hanover as he is in his own county, Wayne, was here yesterday and exhibited to a number of friends the greatest freak in potato growth that has been seen. The potato in question was one of 16 wagon loads of fine "veined" yams which he grew on his Belvedere farm, near Pikeville, and one of these growing about 15 inches under ground extended itself through the pine knot, filling the hollow space completely. Had the potato remained in the ground and grown for a week or ten days longer it is plain to be seen that the yam would have burst its lightwood band asunder. The yam is a fine one and its peculiar growth attracted much attention wherever it was seen yesterday.

FREIGHT WRECK ON W. & W.

Cars Piled Up on Track at Faison, N. C., Delays Traffic

A freight wreck of some consequence on the siding at Faison, N. C., yesterday afternoon so piled up equipment on the main line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad that the train due here at 6 o'clock yesterday evening did not arrive until an early hour this morning, though passengers were transferred at the scene of the wreck and brought on to Wilmington and points this side of Faison. No one was injured, but a wrecking crew from Wilmington required some hours to clear the line.

Rally Day at Trinity

The rally day service at Trinity Methodist church last Sunday night was vedy fine. The opening services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Sell, after which the following subjects were discussed: "Home Mission Work," by Mr. W. B. Cooper; "The Importance of Giving Adequate Support to the Superannuated Preachers, etc.," by Mr. K. W. Price; "Foreign Missions," by Mr. J. A. McNorton. The speakers were greeted by a large audience. Because of limited time, the speeches were short, but they were from the heart, and throbbed with intense interest. The soul stirring hymns which were interspersed by the excellent choir were inspiring and very much enjoyed by all. A very good collection was taken for what is known in Methodist circles, as "Conference Collections."

Exceeding Speed Limit

Sheriff S. P. Cowan caused a warrant to be issued late yesterday afternoon before Justice Harriss against Mrs. Sam Springer, charging her with exceeding the speed limit in her automobile. The hearing is set for this morning before Justice Harriss. Sheriff Cowan and Deputy Sheriff Kelly were returning to the city and at a point near Winter Park came upon an automobile driven by Mrs. Springer and occupied by two ladies besides herself. It is said that when Sheriff Cowan blew his horn to go by, the machine in front was let out at something like full speed and from there to 17th and Market streets made 40 or 50 miles an hour. Sheriff Cowan's car was in close pursuit and at times the speedometer, it is alleged, registered 52 miles an hour. The warrnt was served by Deputy Sheriff Davis.

ELECTRIC LINE TO SUNSET

Form of Application for Use of Portion of Federal Point Road is Changed—Commissioners to Hold Meeting.

The Board of County Commissioners will hold a called meeting Friday afternoon, November 22nd, for the purpose of acting upon the application in a new form of the Tidewater Power Company for a franchise to use 10 feet on the west side of the Federal Point road from Third and Greenfield streets to Sunset Park for an electric line, gas mains, etc. The application in its new form was submitted to the board yesterday afternoon when it was thought that a special meeting would be held. Four members were present, but it was decided to postpone the meeting until all could be in attendance and in the meantime due notice of the meeting and the purpose is to be given.

Some weeks ago the Tidewater Power Company made application to the board for a franchise for a right-of-way for an electric line, gas mains, etc., from Third and Greenfield streets to Sunset Park on the Federal Point road, using the bed of the present temporary railroad constructed by the county. The franchise was declined on the ground that the roadway as laid out is none too wide now, being 30 feet in width, and a car line would cut it down to about 20 feet. It was stated by the commissioners that they did not think the county road should not be less than 30 feet in width. They made the Tidewater Power Company a proposition to the effect that if the company secured a right-of-way from private individuals contiguous to the road that they would allow the use of the temporary railroad for transporting materials, etc., at actual cost to the county. This proposition was not accepted.

The objection of the Commissioners as set forth when the matter was up before being on account of lessening the width of the thoroughfare, the Tidewater Power Co. yesterday presented a proposition that apparently meets the approval of some of the commissioners. The county has a right-of-way of 40 feet for the Federal Point road, but only 30 feet is to be used, leaving five feet on each side. The Tidewater Power Co. now asks for 10 feet on the west side of the Federal Point road, agreeing to build up the road on the east side of the present macadam road five feet to offset the five that would be taken from the present road on the west side. It further agrees to macadam that portion between its tracks and for one foot on the west side and on the east side to connect with the present county macadam road. It agrees to maintain that portion of the macadam it puts down. So under the proposition of the Tidewater Power Co., it can secure a 10-foot right-of-way on the west side of the thoroughfare and still leave the county a 30-foot highway as it has at present, or would have if the temporary railroad was removed. The Tidewater Power Co. agrees to remove the present temporary railroad as far down as Sunset Park and deliver the material to the county at Third and Greenfield and further agrees that when the remainder of the temporary road is removed the county can have the use of the electric road to transport the material from Sunset Park to Third and Greenfield streets.

The proposed ordinance provides that work on the right-of-way shall begin within eight months from the date the franchise is granted, but it is silent as to when the road must be completed, and put in operation. Several persons have remarked that the ordinance should stipulate a reasonable time for the work to be completed. It is not improbable that the commissioners, if they grant the franchise, will insist upon this provision being included.

Besides the petition for the franchise the commissioners at the called meeting Friday of next week will elect a coroner to succeed Dr. C. D. Bell, who has tendered his resignation, as he is leaving the city to make his home at Gatesville, Gates county. While no names have as yet been mentioned in connection with the office, it is likely that someone will be found to take it. It is not necessary that the coroner of a county be a physician; in fact, very frequently laymen are chosen for the office.

ROBERTSON MANAGER

Former Wilmingtonian to Take Charge Of City Government

Capt. William F. Robertson, formerly of this city, according to dispatches from Sumter, S. C., has been elected to the office of manager of that town under a new form of government closely approximating the commission form. Sumter has recently decided to try out the new form and after looking the field over has offered to Capt. Robertson the office of manager for the city, say the South Carolina dispatches.

A special from Sumter contains the following regarding the newly-created office:

"William F. Robertson, of Charlotte, a native of this State and a graduate of the Citadel, it was announced today, would be the first manager of Sumter under the new city manager, commission form of government. Mr. Robertson is highly recommended and, if he accepts the position, will begin his duties here at once."

COLUMBIA WANTS WILSON.

Will Ask Next President to Make His Winter Home There.

The following from yesterday's Columbia, S. C., State will be of interest here:

"Following the suggestion of August Kohn, former president of the South Carolina Press Association, that Woodrow Wilson and his family make Columbia their winter home, a committee left yesterday for Princeton, N. J., for an interview with the President-elect and urge upon him to accept the invitation. The committee will very probably call upon Gov. Wilson tonight and extend the invitation to make Columbia the 'Winter capital' of the United States.

"The members of the committee leaving Columbia yesterday were: Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina; Wade Hampton Gibbes, mayor of Columbia; J. E. Swearingen, State superintendent of education; James Woodrow, instructor at the University of South Carolina, and Wm. E. Gonzales, editor of The State. The committee will be joined this afternoon at Princeton by August Kohn, W. D. Melton, William Elliott and E. W. Robertson, who will come down this morning from New York.

"All plans for entertaining the next President of the United States have been perfected. The old Wilson home at the corner of Hampton and Henderson streets, owned by J. M. Van Metre, which was occupied by Gov. Wilson and his parents in his boyhood days, has been secured for the 'Winter home.' However, should the President-elect prefer, a suite of ten rooms have been secured at the Colonia Hotel. Ample accommodations have also been provided for his secretaries and the 'newspaper cabinet,' or press correspondents, first established by President Taft in 1908.

"The committee will also extend an invitation to Gov. Wilson to attend the Fifth National Corn Exposition, to be held here during January and February of 1913. He will be asked to deliver an address on 'National Education Day,' which is January 31."

Mrs. Rebecca Burns Passes.

Mrs. Rebecca Burns passed away at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home on Kidder street, between Front and Second streets. She was in the 66th year of her age. The hour of the funeral had not been arranged last night. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

LOCAL DOTS.

—An important meeting of the Civic Committee of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the rooms of the organization today at noon. Mr. John J. Blair is chairman of the committee.

—The fire department was called out at 12:52 P. M. Sunday, by an alarm from box 49 on account of a blaze at the residence of Mr. R. H. Brady, No. 408 Church street. A spark from a chimney caused the fire, which did about $5 damage.

—Bids for erecting the proposed handsome new blilding for the Y. M. C. A. on Market street, next east of the Colonial Hotel, will be opened by the building committee this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Wm. E. Springer is chairman of the committee.

—Mr. N. E. Galligher was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with obstructing Church street, between Front and Surry, and Walnut street at No. 209 with brick. He was recognized for his appearance before the Recorder this morning.

—Winston-Salem Journal: "Mr. Frank Foltz has accepted a position with the Gerken Tobacco Company, of Wilmington. Mr. Foltz for a long time has had charge of the cigar and tobacco department of O'Hanlon's drug store here. He has many friends who will regret to learn that he is to leave the city."

—A deed of trust was filed for record yesterday from J. J. Watters assigning to E. T. Burton, as trustee, all his stock of merchandise, etc., at No. 609 Castle sereet. The trustee is directed to take charge of the goods and dispose of the same to the best advantage and after allowing the usual exemption and paying expenses to pay the balance to the creditors pro rata.

—Rufus Covington, a white man of Delgado, was tried in Justice Harriss' court yesterday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on a suburban car. He was put off the car at Wrightsville Sound and he was arrested at Seagate by Deputy Sheriff Davis. Covington was sentenced to 30 days on the roads, prayer for judgment being continued for one year, conditioned upon the good behavior of the defendant.

—A new enterprise just launched in Wilmington is the Rozo Broom and Bedding Company, which has opened a factory at 134 South Front street. The specialties of the new company will be the manufacture of high-grade brooms and feather pillows of all kinds, which will be distributed at wholesale to the retail merchants. The company has an announcement in the Business Local columns of today's Star.

Sues for Loss of Finger.

Suit was instituted in Superior Court yesterday by Ramond Murrell by his father and next friend, J. P. Murrell, against the Bellwill Cotton Mills. While the complaint has not yet been filed it is understood that the plaintiff is suing for damages for the alleged loss of two fingers while employed in the defendant's mills in this city in October of this year. The amount of damages that will be sought is probably $5,000. The plaintiff is represented by Rienud & Jones.

—Col. Walker Taylor, Grand Chancellor, Knights of Pythias, domain of North Carolina, and Mr. J. D. Nutt, Deputy State Chancellor, will leave this afternoon for Newbern, where tonight they will attend a district meeting of the Knights of Pythias. Colonel Taylor will go from Newbern to Greensboro, where he will attend a meeting of the directors of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Co.

ARRESTED IN NEWBERN.

Two Escaped Convicts Captured Yesterday—Will be Brought Back.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan received a telegram yesterday from Mr. E. L. Upton, chief of police of Newbern, stating that Randolph Williams and Amby Cumber, escaped convicts from this city, had been arrested there. Sheriff Cowan wired the Newbern officer that he would send for the prisoners this morning. Deputy Sheriff Reynolds will go for them. Both Cumber and Williamson are white. The former, who is about 30 years old, was serving a sentence of 12 months for larceny and violating the prohibition law, and the latter, who is only about 19 years old, had about six months of a sentence yet to serve. Williamson effected his escape from the James Walker Memorial Hospital about ten days ago. He had been at the institution for several days for treatment.

Death of Little Son.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill, of Seagate, will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their 11-months-old son, Roydon Hill, which occurred at the family residence at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held from the residence this afternoon.

—Willie McRae, colored, has reported to Justice Bornemann that his roommate George Montgomery, colored, stole his overcoat, gold watch, pistol and $37 Saturday night. The magistrate issued a warrant for Montgomery, who is being sought by the officers.

..Theatrical..

That merry railway journey from Chicago to Reno as set forth in the farce, "Excuse Me," will be at the Academy tonight, seats now selling at Plummer's. There have been plays that had laughter in spots more or less frequent but there have been few with laughter all the way through. "Excuse Me" is one of the few.

The moment the first character steps on the stage, or in this case enters the car, for all the action is on a railway train, the fun starts, and it rushes at a lightning express speed to the end of the last act. The persons are droll, they say witty things, and they are carried through a succession of laughable incidents. "Excuse Me" is admirable farce. Its purpose is to create laughter, which it does in limitless quantities. It is a laugh for everybody, hence everybody is the better for seeing it, for laughter is good for all. The company that Henry W. Savage is sending here in "Excuse Me" is ideal. Every character is capitally portrayed. A better bunch of funmakers could not have been got together.

Of Henry W. Savage's offering of Rupert Hughes' farce "Excuse Me," a play that relates the comic incidents befalling an amusing company of travelers on a railway trip from Chicago to Reno, enthusiastic commendation is justified, for at the Gaiety Theatre in New York it made an enormous hit and achieved the notable run of nine months. Therefore, there is a Broadway guarantee of the kind and quality of "Excuse Me" as its long run proclaims its tremendous popularity. Without exception New York dramatic critics declared that no such clever play as "Excuse Me" had been seen in years. They said it scintillated with bright lines, that laughter came with remarkable frequency. One said, "There is in it that which makes one want to see it again." That explains the farce's success. "Excuse Me" gains on repetition. It draws people back time and again and each time they enjoy it more than before. Its humor grows. Therein lies the reason for the protracted New York run. No play can last nine months on Broadway unless it is so clever people go to see it repeatedly. "Excuse Me" is this kind. It is unique in idea and novel in setting. It is a bright and ingenious welding into an entertaining play of episodes on a railway journey with all the scenes in the Pullman cars. Every moment and every happening is a laugh, yet there is decided plausibility in it all, in the events of the trip and in the persons who while droll and amusing are faithful types.

The Grand Theatre

With the big special feature film, the Grand Theatre yesterday started off the new week with a rush and today an equally as good bill is going to be offered. Mr. Chick will have as his song, 'Just a Dream of You Dear," a most wonderful ballad that has been sung with great success by The Grand soloist.

In the moveys a big feature will be an Edison educational film, "Copper Mines at Bingham, Utah." This is the largest copper mine in the world and the picture is designed to give a real view of the real West. Old and young will enjoy this picture. Another film that will attract attention is "A Suffragette in Spite of Himself." Rich in comedy, dealing with a modern question of American politics and beautifully colored, this feature of the performance at The Grand today will be worth in itself the price of admission. But one of the best pictures for today will be the big Essanay production of "The Moving Finger," a superb drama, wonderful in gripping intensity and portrayed as only Essanay knows how to portray them. These pictures are, of course, with all realistic effects and with complete orchestra accompaniment. All days are banner days at The Grand and you should attend today and carry a friend.

At the Bijou.

Four big ones today. The popular, up-to the very second Bijou never does anything by halves. It is always way ahead of the amusement game, and so today instead of three films it will offer four of the freshest and biggest. In fact, it will be the best quartette ever presented in a "movey" and will afford an abundance of pure joy. Yesterday was a swell day at the Bijou. There were large audiences throughout the day, and each was immensely delighted.

"The Sheriff's Mistake," is the leading dramatic for today and it is stirring in every fibre. It tells of the old stage coach days. A stage is held up and a big reward offered. Now Nell Bassett needs the reward to pay off a mortgage and she mistakes a handsome stranger for the bandit and arrests him. But he turns out to be a secret service agent, but Nell finally locates the real bandit and wins the reward, and the captured stranger wins her heart.

"The Subterfuge" is the prince of pure comedy films on today. Two young men propose to the same girl and she offers to marry the one who catches the heaviest fish. The one she really loves, however, catches the smallest, but the way love finds a way out of the difficulty is wonderful, as well as being decidedly mirthful.

"The Geisha Girls of Japan," a remarkable educational film taken in Sunny Japan, is also a star today, and will delight the eye as well as mind.

Pathe's latest weekly, the biggest thing in an animated newspaper will also be presented, and contains a vast amount of information. Scenes all over the world are graphically shown.

PORTO RICO'S NEW WONDER.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

Write Ideas for Moving Picture Plays

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25. OR MORE WEEKLY

We Will Show You How!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100, and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

Nearly all the big film companies, the buyers of photoplays, are located in or near NEW YORK CITY. Being right on the spot, and knowing at all times just what sort of plots are wanted by the producers, our SALES DEPARTMENT has a tremendous advantage over agencies situated in distant cities.

We have received many letters from the big film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REX, RELIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We Are Selling Photoplays Written by People Who "Never Before Wrote a Line for Publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of only one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25, a low figure,

You Will Earn $100 Monthly for Spare Time Work.

COTTON BROKE $2 PER BALE WHEAT MARKET DEPRESSED STOCKS SUDDENLY TURN WEAK

After Making New High Records the Market Reacted and the Close Was Weak at a Decline of 10 to 26 Points

New York, Nov. 11.—After making new high records, the cotton market broke approximately $2 per bale during today's late trading, and the close was weak, at a net decline of from 10 to 26 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 7 points to an advance of 1 point, with the near months relatively easy on disappointing cables, a less favorable view of European political conditions and good weather in the South. There was heavy selling right after the call, supposed to be chiefly in the way of realizing, but offerings were readily absorbed by trade buying, support from houses with Southern connections, and a fresh scattering demand from local sources, which appeared to be inspired by very bullish spot advices from the South. The market consequently soon became firm and as prices advanced recent sellers for a reaction turned to cover. All the active months sold into new high ground during the early afternoon, with January contracts touching 12.17 and March 12.38, comparing with 10.34 and 10.52, the low points of last month. On this advance of about 14 to 18 points above the final figures of Saturday, however, realizing again became very heavy, and the market broke some 40 to 42 points from the best during the last hour, with the decline accompanied by rumors of a slackening spot demand and reports that leading bull interests were liquidating. Weakness in the stock market was attributed largely to rumors that another general election might become necessary in England, owing to the defeat of the Home Rule bill, and this may have contributed to the late decline. At any rate, the market closed within a point or two of the lowest. Trading was extremely active, particularly late in the day, when long cotton seemed to be coming out from practically all directions. Liverpool attributeed the early decline there to a less favorable view of the situation in the Balkans, and there was heavy European selling here on the early advance.

Spot, quiet. Middling uplands, 12.20; do. gulf, 12.45; sales, 100 bales.

Spot cotton closed weak.

After Four Hours of Irregularity In Which Prices Rose and Fell Within Narrow Limits All Gains Were Wiped Out

New York, Nov. 11.—After four hours of irregularity in which prices rose and fell within one point limits, today's stock market suddenly turned weak in the last hour, not only wiping out all gains, but in several important issues, notably United States Steel, going under last week's low level.

The selling in the late dealings was only moderate and the decline altogether gradual. The only previous break in the monotony of the session was when the market suffered a sharp reversal on news from Washington that the Supreme Court would render no decision today in the several suits of especial interest to Wall Street, including the so-called coal cases and the Union-Southern Pacific merger.

Foreign conditions were negatively helpful to the reactionary movement. Uncertainties growing out of the Balkan situation were an added factor not only in London, but at the French and German capitals. Call money touched 6 per cent. toward the end of the day, but time rates were off a fraction on the strength of the bank statement last Saturday. The one cheerful note of the day was contained in traffic advices from the Middle West, which showed much improvement.

Bonds were lower on a fair distribution of offerings. Total sales, par value, aggregated $2,038,000. United States government bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales, today, 547,100 shares.

CASE IS COMPROMISED

Indictments Against Cudahy Packing Co., Nol Prossed

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 11.—Indictments against the Cudahy Packing Company, charging violations of the Federal act governing the sale of oleomargerine, have been nol prossed, following a compromise between the government and the Cudahy company. It was announced today. The indictment contained 273 counts and had the case gone to trial and the company adjudged guilty the fines would have aggregated $500,000. The compromise was made on a cash basis of $1,300 and the Cudahy company paying court costs.

The indictments grew out of the alleged discovery that Thomas Hopkins, a local dealer, was selling oleomargarine, which he declared was butter. It was found that the oleomargarine-selling was participated in by the Cudahy company. It is reported that the violation of the law by the Cudahy company was purely technical and unintentional on its part. The case against Hopkins still is pending.

FIRM FOUNDATION

Nothing Can Undermine It In Wilmington

People are sometimes slow to recognize true merit, and they cannot be blamed, for so many have been humbugged in the past. The experience of hundreds of Wilmington residents, expressed publicly through newspapers and other sources, places Doan's Kidney Pills on a firm foundation here.

L. H. Partin, 505 Chesnut street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very pleased to confirm the public statement I gave in February, 1908, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used this remedy occasionally since then and it has always brought the best of results. (Statement given December 26th, 1910.)

The endorsement referred to by Mr. Partin was in substance as follows: "My back was weak and lame and I had acute pains across my loins. The secretions from my kidneys were highly colored and filled with sediment and caused me much distress when being voided. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I obtained a box from Bellamy's drug store and began their use according to directions. They acted just as represented and drove away all the symptoms of my complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILL WILSON CALL AN EXTRA SESSION

He will call on the local officials and request that his identity be not officially recognized.

"I am sure everybody will respect that wish," he said. "I am going to a remote place. There will be no news from me. I am going to write my message to the New Jersey Legislature and rest."

He said his chief diversions would be bicycling and horseback riding. He will go to New York Friday night preparatory to sailing the next day.

The Governor today received a live eagle from John P. Parker, elector at-large from Louisian. The bird reposes tonight in a crate on the back door step of the Wilson bungalow. The President-elect does not know yet what to do with it.

Divide Over Extra Session

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Division of opinion exists among Democratic Senators and Representatives as to the wisdom of an extra session of Congress immediately after the inauguration of President-elect Wilson. In the main, members of the House favor such a session, but some Senators advocate a more conservative course. Two of the comparative small number of Democratic Senators now in the city, today took a position in favor of a Fall instead of a Spring session, but they declined to be quoted, on the ground that they did not wish to embarrass Mr. Wilson. Agreeing with these Senators, Representative Carlip, of Virginia, said:

"I certainly would not have a Spring session of Congress. My plan would be to have the Ways and Means Committee of the House and the Finance Committee of the Senate re-organized and put to work on the tariff at the earliest possible moment. The task is a stupendous one and could not be accomplished within less than four to five months. If the investigation could be made in advance of the meeting much time and money could be saved and Congress could be called together at the convenience of the two committees and of the President.

Chairman Underwood, of the Ways and Means Committee, whose duty it will be to formulate all tariff measures, is not expected in Washington before November 20th. The popular understanding among members of the House is that he desires an early session for the consideration of tariff measures, and a majority of members express themselves as favorable to this course. They take the position that the Democratic party is morally bound to reduce the tariff schedule as soon as possible and they also privately express the opinion that it is in the interest of Democratic politics to dispose of the tariff speedily.

While refusing to express opinion as to whether an extra session would be called immediately after March 4th, Senator Swanson, of Virginia, expressed confidence that the Democratic party would redeem its pledge for an early and material reduction of the tariff.

TWO SURPRISES.

Witness Saw Caruso Stab Policeman. Saw Cop With Guns.

Salem, Mass., Nov. 11.—Two surprises, one for the defense and the other for the commonwealth, came in the Ettor, Giovannitti and Caruso trial today, when Thomas Kanada, former Lawrence textile worker, brought from Cleveland by the prosecution, testified that he saw the defendant, Joseph Caruso, stab the policeman in the riot at the time Anna Lopizzo was killed and also that he saw Policeman Marshall, of Lawrence, at that time with a revolver in his hand.

Kanada, a young man who said he kept his knowledge of the stabbing secret so long because he did not want to testify until compelled to, caused a stir in the court room when he pointed to the prisoner's cage and identified Caruso as the man he saw stick a knife into Benoit's back. Rose Caruso, wife of the defendant, burst into tears and immediately left the court room.

The police have declared they did not draw their revolvers. When Kanada left the stand he was immediately subpoenaed by attorneys for the defense and probably will be called to testify further as to the actions of the police on that occasion.

After Kanada's testimony Caruso himself took the stand and denied he was near the scene of the riot. Testifying through an interpreter he gave a detailed account of his movements for the entire day on January 29th, and declared that while he was in the Lawrence jail officers had tried to fasten other crimes upon him.

The defendant's testimony that he was at home eating supper at the time of the Lopizzo shooting, corroborated details of the story told by his wife and father and landlord, who testified Saturday.

RESIGNS AMBASSADORSHIP

Charles Page Bryan, Ambassador to Japan, Tenders Resignation

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—Charles Page Bryan, United States ambassador to Japan, today tendered his resignation to President Taft, who reluctantly accepted it. Mr. Bryan gave ill-health, brought on by a carriage accident in Japan, the reason for his resignation. He is now at his home in Elmhurst, Ill., receiving medical treatment.

Although a general change in the personnel of the ambassadors of the United States was expected as a sequence to the recent election, Ambassador Bryan is the first of the diplomatic corps formally to tender his resignation to President Taft. Mr. Bryan departed from Tokio on leave of absence in September. He previously had arranged to absent himself from his post, but was prevented by the death of the Emporor of Japan, which event caused him to defer his departure until after the funeral of the dead ruler.

Mr. Bryan is a native of Chicago. After completing his education at the University of Virginia and the Columbia College law school, he practiced in Colorado. He entered the diplomatic service in 1897 and before going to Tokio in 1911, had served as minister to China, Brazil, Switzerland, Portugal and Belgium.

LABOR OFFICIALS REPORT.

Bright Future in Store for Union Labor, According to Predictions.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Declarations that union labor is making giant strides towards its ideals and bright predictions for its future, were contained in the reports of the officers of the American Federation of Labor, at the 32nd annual convention here today. These reports, with a partial report from the credentials committee, and the appointment of convention committees, occupied the sessions. The attendance was not as large as had been exepcted, only 356 delegates being seated.

President Samuel Gompers twice referred to the McNamara case; once in his annual report when he reviewed the Los Angeles situation and urged a movement for the general improvement of the condition of the Iron Workers, and again, indirectly, in his opening remarks, when he protested against the holding up of the "derelicts of unionism" as examples of what that movement stands for.

No organization of men, President Gompers declared, represents a greater power for the advancement of humanity along right lines. "The forms of labor war have been constantly refined," he added. "Free workmen do not employ the methods of slaves."

Mr. Gompers' report was frequently interrupted by applause. This was principally marked, when he declared against compulsory arbitration laws and for the recall of judges in the States and the re-appointment of Federal judges every four years. "We have had enough government by dead men, dead issues, dead principles and iron-clad restrictions," he said. "We must have restored to the people the unrestricted power of changing their statutory or organic laws whenever they find the occasion and necessity warrants it."

The struggle of the International Association of Steam Hot Water & Power Pipe Fitters to maintain an organization independent of the United Association of Plumbers, was the only jarring note of the day's proceedings. The steam fitters have ignored the request of the 31st annual convention that they amalgamate with the plumbers and are here demanding recognition. A precipitation of a fight in convention was averted today when the credentials committee made only a partial report. When the list of accredited delegates was read a number of steam fitters demanded to know what disposition had been made of their credentials. Their protests were cut short by President Gompers, who said the case was still before the credentials committee. A report on the case is expected tomorrow.

The principal committee chairmanships assigned by President Gompers and approved by the convention were:

Rules, T. A. Rickert; laws, John B. Lennon; organization, James M. Lynch; adjustment, John Mitchell; federated bodies, H. B. Perham; boycotts, D. A. Hayes.

TARIFF LEGISLATION FIRST.

Oscar Underwood Thinks It Should Come Before Currency.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—J. Lawrence Laughlin, chairman of the National Citizens' League for the promotion of a sound banking system, today made public a letter from Oscar W. Underwood, Democratic floor leader in the House of Representatives, in which the Alabama man declared that the tariff was first and banking reform second as the big issues before the American people. The letter in part follows:

"In reference to future legislation I believe the foremost is an honest downward revision of the custom tariff taxes and I believe that this revision should be entered upon at once and nothing allowed to interfere with it until it finally becomes a law.

"A matter that I consider of importance second only to that of tariff reform is a complete revision of the banking and currency system of the United States. It is possible that we have not progressed far enough at this time to arrive at a statement of the definite details of the measure that should be enacted, but it is certainly a matter which the Democrats must take up and settle."

The letter concluded by stating that Mr. Underwood favored a special session of Congress to take up the subject of the tariff.

FARMERS' NATIONAL CONGRESS.

Would Have Congress Prohibit Coloring of Oleomargerine.

New Orleans, Nov. 11.—At the closing session of the Farmers' National Congress today, resolutions were adopted favoring the passage by Congress of laws prohibiting the coloring of oleomargeine in imitation or semblance of butter.

Preparatory steps were taken towards devising a plan for the uniform warehousing of all farm products with a view of enabling farmers to hold their products so as to obtain just prices.

Resolutions against the abridgement of the press, as contained in the recently enacted postoffice appropriation act, and in favor of the creation of a bureau of markets in the Department of Agriculture, were adopted. It was announced that the next Congress will be held at Piano, Ill.

The constitution of the congress was amended so as to make eligible to membership representatives of different organizations devoted to the interests of farming and agriculture.

Hutsonville, Ill., Nov. 11.—Twenty-five States were represented today in the 14th annual field trials of the Independent Field Club. About 75 men were running and the remaining five braces were run and the remining five braces are expected to be run by Friday. The scarcity of birds has made the trial difficult. The judges are N. T. Harris, of Linden, Ky., and Dr. J. A. Wheeler, of Springfield, Ill.

ANOTHER SWINDLER ARRESTED

arrests in seven days, and that all the swindlers now at liberty have abandoned their usual Broadway haunts and fallen for the tip to get away.

Sidbury today identified McDonald as one of the operators in the alleged pool room where he lost the Wilmington money, but Powell did not. Dougherty has sent for Mason, the Norfolk victim, to come here at once and look over all the prisoners when they will be on exhibition in court. Jones, of Pittsburg, is here now.

Last night one of the reporters of this association went to the hiding place of Kirby Cleveland Sidbury and Dentist Powell in an obscure hotel on Fourth avenue under the surveillance of a central office detective, Sergeant Randolph by name. The reporter asked to see the two Wilmingtonians, but was peremptorily refused. He then offered to send any statement to The Star for publication they might write and sign, so that "the folks at home" could hear from them, but the detective, without consulting his wards, totally rejected the proposition, and took great umbrage that their hiding place had been discovered, threatening to arrest the reporter if he tried to get into any communication with his "prisoners". It seems that they have little communication with any one in New York, being only permitted to receive their mail and telephone message from home at police headquarters.

It was learned today that emissaries of the Gondorf brothers, who are rich and the wire-tapping gang, which is well capitalized, have attempted to call off Sidbury and Powell by returning their lost money and giving them a handsome bonus to cover their time and expense if they will fly the coop and hustle back to Wilmington and stay there. Three or four expert private detectives have been employed in negotiating such a deal with the Wilmingtonians and it is said one of the most expert of private female detective operatives in the city, disguised as a chambermaid in the hotel where they stopped, got caught and bounced in her efforts to inveigle them. Early this morning, after it was found out by their guard that our reporter knew their hiding place, they were quickly and secretly conveyed to a new haven of rest.

BRYAN AT THE CAPITAL

Commoner Spends Busy Day About Washington—Dedicates Hospital

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—William Jennings Bryan spent a busy day about Washington today, beginning a week of resting. He made a number of calls, visited a number of officials of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, whose convention will begin here tomorrow, delivered an address at the dedication of a new building for Sibley Memorial Hospital, and tonight attended a reception to the Southern Relief Society, tendered by the officers of the library of Congress.

Mr. Bryan had nothing to say about politics today, but he intimated he might have some comment to make on the National situation before he leaves Washington next week. He is staying with Mrs. Bryan at the home of their son, W. J. Bryan, Jr., who is attending college here.

At the dedication of the Sibley Memorial Hospital building, Mr. Bryan delivered an address along distinctly religious lines. He made but one reference to politics, when, in opening he declared:

"I feel surer about my religion than I do about my politics."

MANY DISCREPANCIES FOUND

Tennessee Election Committee Finds Too Many Votes for McMillin.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 11.—The Davidson county election committee when it met here today to canvass the vote in the recent general election decided by a vote of 2 to 1 to open the ballot boxes. Discrepancies between the vote cast and the vote as reported by the election officers were found. Three wards, the Third, Sixth and 21st showed that McMillin, Democrat, had profited 444 votes in the three wards by reason of incorrect certification. Only the vote in the Gubernatorial election was counted.

There is a legal question as to whether the commission has the right to change the certification of the vote as reported by the election officers. A bond issue of $150,000 for street improvement was voted on in the election and it is probable that the matter may be thrown into court. Unless injunction proceedings are taken the vote in the county will be recounted in its entirety.

When Baby has Croup

Every Mother Should Know About Booth's HYOMEI

In any home where a child has a tendency to croup, a bottle of HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) should be kept constantly on hand.

A sudden attack of croup with difficult breathing and extreme distress is apt to come on any time.

The course to be pursued is plain. Send for your doctor at once, and in the meantime drop 30 drops of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water and hold the child's head over it, cover with a towel or cloth, so that only the air filled with HYOMEI vapor is breathed.

This method of treatment has saved many a child's life, and mothers of croupy children should see to it that Booth's HYOMEI is always on hand. Full instructions for prompt relief of croup is in each package.

Booth's HYOMEI is made of Australian Eucalptus and other antiseptics. Money returned if it does not give satisfaction in treatment of catarrh, coughs, colds, croup and catarrhal deafness. Ask R. R. Bellamy about it.

Clean pots and pans with GOLD DUST

Germs of decay accumulate on oft-used pots and pans, and ordinary soap and water only cleans off the surface.

Gold Dust does the work—and does it right. It digs deep after germs, cleans like a flash and leaves your pots and pans as bright as the day they were new—and sanitarily safe.

Gold Dust does this work in just half the time required by soap or any other cleanser. Does it better, too.

Gold Dust cleans everything like magic.

You can buy a large package of Gold Dust for 5 cents.

"Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work"

Newport News, Va., Nov. 11.—Paul Jones Davis, of Stillwater, Okla., formerly of the New York State, Tri-State and American Association and now coaching the Oklahoma Agricultural Institute football team, was tonight elected manager of the Newport News, Virginia League, team for the season of 1913.
